Confessions

The line extends beyond the horizon
Spot after spot after spot
Some occupied by future me.
Look. Here you are again!
I find myself next –
Push door and enter and hear myself begin.
“In the name of…”
“It’s been two minutes…”
two millennia
My silent voice echoes through corridors of history
Shamefully shameless
Lovingly loveless
Livingly lifeless
Voice after voice
Spot after spot
Me after you after me after you
Each voice echoes sin
The door push/pulled
Click and thud and click and thud
The line, the echo, the click and
Tick
The line – tick
Echo – tick
Click tick thud.
The noon bell chimes
Echoes – “It’s time”
Endless the line.
Ready or not.
I pull the door and step out.
I see you and me and you and me and
Empty lanterns and eternity.
I lock the door.
The Mass begins.

Father Michael O’Reilly
What Have You Given Up For Lent?

Turn back to the Lord and do penance.
—Be renewed in heart and spirit.

So says the Responsorial in the opening liturgy of the Divine Office for Ash Wednesday. It sets the tone of the Lenten season, which is not so much about fasting and almsgiving as it is about a renewal of heart and spirit. Lent is a time of reflection, a time to reflect and take a closer look at the state of our soul and discern where we might need to amend our ways, adjust our manner of life, and renew our commitment to God. Fasting, penance, almsgiving, and personal sacrifice can facilitate the reflection and renewal we are striving for in preparation for a worthy celebration of Easter, but we cannot accomplish that renewal by simply finding a token pleasure to give up.

Fasting can challenge our gluttony and expose how often we eat, not out of necessity, but merely as a pleasure-seeking pastime that we employ to cover up our depression, which may be a symptom of our weakened spiritual life. Penance can express our godly sorrow over some mortal sin we have committed and repented of and taken to confession. Almsgiving can fly in the face of our greed and covetousness and make us more sensitive to the plight of the poor and the less fortunate. But what if these aren’t the particular sins and imperfections we struggle with? Can we not tailor our Lenten sacrifices to challenge our own particular besetting sins? Certainly we can, but exactly how do we do that?

Once we recognize what our besetting sins are and what we struggle with the most, it is easy to come up with a Lenten program that challenges us in those particular areas. In that case, we ought to adopt Lenten sacrifices that specifically and intentionally challenge us to act in a manner contrary to what we are the most commonly guilty of.

I heard a young lady describe her struggle with vanity and an overemphasis on how she looks. She was always looking at her body in the wall-sized mirror in her room, scrutinizing every little imperfection in her physical appearance, which made her struggle with her failure to measure up to the impossible standards of fashion magazines. She was always starving herself in order to look like the models she saw in the touched up photos that, despite being a naturally attractive young lady, made her always feel ugly and in need of greater weight loss. In discussing her Lenten sacrifices with a discerning priest, he counseled her not to fast at all during Lent because that would only play to her vanity and advance her obsession toward anorexia.

She decided that her Lenten program should take on a different character. She determined not to starve herself during Lent, but instead eat three reasonable meals a day and even snack in between occasionally. For her, that was a more rigorous form of “fasting” than going without food, because it would force her to deal with her vanity and her obsession with her weight. What she chose to “give up” for Lent was looking in the mirror; she would cover the mirror in her room and not look at herself nor scrutinize anything about her body for the duration of Lent. By choosing this Lenten program, she captured the very essence of Lent: striving after spiritual renewal by making sacrifices and offering penance that form new habits in us and set a new tone for our manner of life after Easter Sunday. While not following the traditional fasting and penances we normally associate with Lent, her particular Lenten program was specifically tailored to help her answer the universal call to,

Turn back to the Lord and do penance.
—Be renewed in heart and spirit.

Next Sunday we will reach the midpoint of Lent (Laetare Sunday, the 4th Sunday of Lent). Even though many of us have already embarked on a Lenten program, we still have time — and are quite free — to make adjustments that sharpen our focus during this blessed time of year, especially as our Lenten observance begins to expose areas of our life that need more specific attention. For that reason, even now we can adjust our Lenten program, offering the prayer given in the Liturgy of the Hours for Friday of the first week of Lent:

"Lord, may our observance of Lent help to renew us and prepare us to celebrate the death and resurrection of Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever."

Everyday Stewardship
Can you recite the Ten Commandments by heart? Several years ago a national US survey found more people could identify the ingredients in a Big Mac and name the children in the Brady Bunch television show than recite the Ten Commandments. Of course, being able to recite them is not nearly as important as living a life in harmony with them. However, if we simply live to not break them then we are only living out half of our discipleship.

Every commandment calls us to action beyond the simplicity of its words. We are not to kill, but we are also called to support life. We are not to steal, but we are also to share what we have freely. We are to have no other Gods before our God, but we also need to actively praise and glorify Him.

To live a moral life is to do more than follow rules and laws. It is to actively live in a way that gives witness to the Good News of Jesus Christ. This way of living is stewardship. As we focus more on the penitential message of Lent, we need to not just reflect on what we have done wrong, but equally what we have failed to do. To be given so much by a loving God and not share those things with God and His people is wrong as well. Perhaps as we reflect on these things we might find ourselves adding something to our lives that will last for many Lenten seasons to come.

The Cathedral Choir and Capella Antiqua join forces with soloists Robin Fisher, Valerie Loera, Salvatore Atti, and Daniel Yoder to provide a moving concert of one of Haydn’s most famous works. First performed in 1768, Haydn’s “Stabat Mater” explores the depths of human emotions, from despair and grief, to lasting joy. This work contains some of the composer’s most rich and deeply felt writing, with moving choruses and soaring solos. Come enjoy Haydn as he was meant to be heard, with period instruments and astounding voices, in the exquisite surroundings of the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament. Friday, March 16 at 7:30 pm. $20 general, $10 student. http://www.capella-antiqua.org.

Offering Mass for a special intention is a long-standing tradition in the Catholic Church. Masses are offered for many reasons: for the souls in purgatory, in remembrance for someone who is deceased, or in honor of a birthday or special anniversary. If you would like to have a Mass said for someone, please contact the rectory office for help with available dates and times. A $10.00 donation per request is appreciated.

Read the Gospel and Color

Sharing the Gospel - Imagine coming to your church to pray. All around your church, you see people selling animals. It smells like a barn. The animals are loud. The people are shouting. You cannot even pray with all the noise and activity going on around you. That is what Jesus found in today’s Gospel. It broke his heart and made Jesus angry. God’s house is not supposed to be turned into a barn or a store. It should be special place where people can meet with God and talk to him. Jesus cleaned out his Father’s house. He turned it back into a place of prayer.

Mission for the Week - Read John 2:13-25 with your family. Ask God to help you keep your church clean. Church should never be a store or a barn. It should be a special place to pray.

“Nothing that you have not given away will ever be really yours.”

- C.S. Lewis -
Confesiones

La línea se extiende más allá del horizonte
Lugar tras lugar tras lugar
Algunos ocupados por el futuro yo.
Mira. Estás aquí nuevamente!
Soy el siguiente -
Empujo la puerta y entro y me escucho empezar.
“En el nombre del ...”
“Han sido dos minutos...”
Dos mil
Mi voz silenciosa hace eco por los corredores de la historia
Vergonzosamente sin vergüenza
Amadamente sin amor
viviendo sin vida
voz tras voz
lugar tras lugar
yo después de ti después de mi después de ti.
Cada voz dice pecado
La puerta empujada/jalada
Clic y pum y clic y pum
la línea, el eco el clic y el tick
La línea- tick
El eco- tick
clic, tick y pum.
Las campanas de las doce suenan
ecos - “es tiempo”
La línea sin termino.
Listo o no.
Jalo la puerta y me salgo.
Te miro a ti y a mí y a ti y a mí y
Linternas vacías y eternidad.
Pongo cerrojo a la puerta.

VERSO DEL EVANGELIO DE DOMINGO

Y a los que vendían palomas les dijo: “Quiten todo de aquí y no conviertan en un mercado la casa de mi Padre”. En ese momento, sus discípulos se acordaron de lo que estaba escrito: El celo de tu casa me devora. - Jn 2, 16-17

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO - ALENTAR ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

En este tercer domingo de Cuaresma, estamos llamados a escuchar las señales que da Jesús como signo de alerta de lo que es la Pas- cua. Una de las señales que el Evangelio enfatiza sin lugar a duda, es que, el cuerpo de Jesús es presencia viva del nuevo templo de Dios. Por lo tanto, por medio de Cristo Dios hace una nueva creación en nosotros. ¿Cómo? Si, poniendo a Jesús como el centro de nuestra vida. Lo viejo del pecado debe ser sacado fuera. El tiempo de Cuaresma es para que destruyamos todo lo que nos ator- menta y aleja de la gracia de Dios. Tal como, las estructuras de odio, envidia, celos, materialismo, arrogancia, racismo y del estatus económico y social de la sociedad actual que muchas veces nos destruye. Solamente, al sacar todo esto de nuestro corazón, el Se- ñor podrá construir algo nuevo y mejor en nosotros.

¿Al ser templo de Jesús, que necesito limpiar de mi? ¿Qué significa para mí y mi familia, que Jesús saque a los vendedores del templo? Yo puedo y debo tener la seguridad que al identificarme como tem- plo de Dios, la vida será más llevadera, y las luchas que tenga que soportar por la fe, lejos de alejarme de Dios me harán fuerte dán- dome la oportunidad de ver las señales de la presencia de Dios en lo que me rodea. Los Mandamientos, son otra señal que lejos de destruir, se dan cuenta de que un viaje es más fácil cuando tienen el equipo adecuado con dirección. Los Diez Mandamientos son las direcciones formales que Dios nos da para asistirnos en nuestras vidas. Él nos da como ejemplo a Jesús, el templo vivo. Jesús nos permite que compartamos en la relación íntima que tiene con su padre para que más rápidamente nosotros lo podamos encontrar. Las reglas y la estructura son importantes. La cuaresma nos recuer- da que fuimos creados de cierta forma y que debemos vivir nues- tras vidas en Dios.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

¿Qué ten seriamente tomás usted los Diez Mandamientos? Muchas personas de hoy actúan con un espíritu libre hacia la vida y su ofe- nacen a conformar sus pensamientos y acciones a reglas y principios establecidos. Todos necesitamos una dirección. Los que viajan mu- cho se dan cuenta de que un viaje es más fácil cuando tienen el equipo adecuado con dirección. Los Diez Mandamientos son las direcciones formales que Dios nos da para asistirnos en nuestras vidas. Él nos da como ejemplo a Jesús, el templo vivo. Jesús nos permite que compartamos en la relación íntima que tiene con su padre para que más rápidamente nosotros lo podamos encontrar. Las reglas y la estructura son importantes. La cuaresma nos recuer- da que fuimos creados de cierta forma y que debemos vivir nues- tras vidas en Dios.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA - RECONOCER A DIOS EN LOS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

¿Usted puede recitar los Diez Mandamientos por memoria? Hace unos años, una encuesta nacional de los EEUU encontró que más personas podían identificar los ingredientes dentro de una hambur- guer de McDonald's y enumerar los hijos del programa popular The Brady Bunch que recitar los Diez Mandamientos. Por supuesto, saberse todos los Diez Mandamientos no es tan importante como vivir una vida en harmonía con ellos. Sin embargo sí vivimos simple- mente para no romper esos mandamientos entonces solo esta- mos viviendo mitad de nuestro discipulado.

Cada mandamiento nos llama a acción más allá de las palabras que usa. No debemos matar, pero también nos llama a apoyar la vida. No debemos robar, pero también debemos compartir lo que tene- mos con libertad. No debemos tener dioses ajenos, pero también necesitamos alabar y glorificar a Dios.

Vivir una vida moral significa más que seguir reglas y leyes. Signifi- ca vivir de tal forma que da testigo a la resurrección de Jesucristo. Esta manera de vivir es el discipulado. En lo que se enfoca más en el mensaje penitente de la cuaresma, necesita reflejar no solo en los momentos de equivocación, pero en lo que ha omitido hacer.

Tener tantos regalos de Dios y no compartirlos ni con Dios ni con las personas podían identificar los ingredientes dentro de una ham- burguesa de McDonald's y enumerar los hijos del programa popular The Brady Bunch que recitar los Diez Mandamientos. Por supuesto, saberse todos los Diez Mandamientos no es tan importante como vivir una vida en harmonía con ellos. Sin embargo sí vivimos simple- mente para no romper esos mandamientos entonces solo esta- mos viviendo mitad de nuestro discipulado.
