Pentecost

Another birth
this time a daughter.
Not a silent star.
Thundering into the world
full of grace demanding her inheritance.
Daddy’s little girl.
He will always love her knowing someday
when she figures it out she will come back.

~Father Michael~

Q: How do we know when we receive the Holy Spirit?

A: My brothers and I discovered something as we got older. There’s a little bit of Dad in us. Each time we catch ourselves using one of his gestures, expressions, or comments about a meal, we say, "I’m getting more like Dad!" Many laughs and good-natured kidding have come out of it. Mom loves it, and so does Dad, although I doubt he’d admit it!

When we are confirmed, we receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit. There is no radical change in us that makes us seem suddenly different. Over a period of time, we come to see that there is a little bit of the Spirit in us. We catch ourselves using the gifts, and often end up wondering where a bit of wisdom came from, or why we were so patient or we feel an intensity in our prayer. Perhaps we felt drawn to deepen our spiritual life or found courage in witnessing to our faith. That’s when we know we have received the Holy Spirit. We take on his image. Yes, we grow in age, grace, and wisdom, but we also grow in our awareness and understanding of the working of God in our life. We become more godlike, realizing we’re getting more and more like God. Our thoughts, words, and actions carry that quality and others, too, see it in us. You might call it holiness. But be confident! There’s a little bit of him in all of us.

“Those whose hearts are pure are temples of the Holy Spirit.”
~Saint Lucy~

“Don’t allow sadness to dwell in your soul, for sadness prevents the Holy Spirit from acting freely.”
~Saint Padre Pio~

“Every divine action begins from the Father, proceeds through the Son, and is completed in the Holy Spirit.”
~Saint Basil~

COME, HOLY SPIRIT, and fill my heart with Your gifts. Let my love be true and my charity be generous. Help me in all my needs, and grant my knowledge to do what is right. Advise me in my doubts, strengthen me in my weakness, protect me when I am tempted and console me when I am afraid. Graciously hear me, O Holy Spirit, and pour Your light into my heart, mind and soul. Help me to live a holy life and grow in goodness and grace.

AMEN

This is why the devil hates the Virgin Mary

Philip Koslowski | Aleteia.org

One of the surest ways of combating the devil is by developing a close relationship with the Blessed Virgin Mary. The devil hates her and runs away from those who are close to her.

According to Italian exorcist Fr. Sante Babolin, “while I was insistently invoking the Most Holy Virgin Mary, the devil answered me: ‘I can’t stand That One (Mary) anymore and neither can I stand you anymore.’”

Furthermore, he discovered that “the strongest reactions of the devil during the exorcism occur when references are made to her apparitions.” Therefore, Babolin frequently invokes the Virgin Mary under her titles of “Lourdes, Fatima or Guadalupe.”

Famed exorcist Fr. Gabriele Amorth confirmed this reality in his dialogues with the devil, where the devil said to him, “I am more afraid when you say the Madonna’s name, because I am more humiliated by being beaten by a simple creature, than by Him.”

Pope Francis related similar words in a homily at St. Mary Major, “Where the Madonna is at home the devil does not enter; where there is the Mother, disturbance does not prevail, fear does not win.”

Why is the devil so afraid of the Virgin Mary, a simple girl from Nazareth?

During the Rite of Exorcism, the priest will pray, “The glorious Mother of God, the Virgin Mary, commands you; she who by her humility and from the first moment of her Immaculate Conception crushed your proud head.”

This prayer is referring to a prophecy foretold in the book of Genesis, where God said to the serpent, “I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will strike your head, and you will strike his heel” (Genesis 3:15). The verse can also be translated as “she will strike your head,” and has traditionally been applied to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Her humility was so radical that it crushes the “proud head” of Satan and is the surest defense against him and his attacks. As the devil told Fr. Amorth, “She makes me angry because she is the humblest of all creatures, and because I am the proudest; because she is the purest of all creatures, and I am not; because, of all creatures, she is the most obedient to God, and I am a rebel.”

Thus, if someone wants to defeat the work of evil in their own lives and the world, one of the strongest responses is to fly to the Virgin Mary. St. Padre Pio agreed with this when he said, “Some people are so foolish that they think they can go through life without the help of the Blessed Mother. Love the Madonna and pray the Rosary, for her Rosary is the weapon against the evils of the world today. All graces given by God pass through the Blessed Mother.”
EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

On this Pentecost Sunday, if you come to Mass at my parish you will see a sea of red all around. The choir, the lectors, the extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, the people in the pews, and of course the celebrant and our deacon, will all be wearing red. We are one of those parishes that strive to reflect the color of the liturgy in our dress. It can be a sight to see.

What we put on our bodies serves only as a reminder of what is really important during these liturgical celebrations. At Pentecost, it was the Spirit of God that filled those in the first Christian community. We wear red to call to mind that very Spirit, often depicted as a fire or flame. However, if we just use red as a reminder of the power of the Spirit without letting it change us, then our actions become merely sentimental.

We are filled with the Holy Spirit through the sacraments of the Church. God touches us and enters into us in a profound way, just like in that upper room at Pentecost. That first powerful movement of the Spirit led to a Church that grew and flourished and remains alive today. What is the movement of the Spirit within calling you to do today? Do we allow God to move us and do great things through us? Red is a bold color to wear at any time. But our actions should be even bolder.

Sharing the Gospel - One day one of your best friends may move away, and you won't see him every day. You can still stay close to your friend by talking on the phone, writing letters, or sending e-mail messages. Jesus knew he would be leaving. He would not see his friends every day. Jesus promised to send his Spirit to them. When they were confused, the Spirit would show them the truth. When they missed him, Jesus would send them messages by the Holy Spirit. Through the Spirit, Jesus could always stay close to his friends.

Prayer - God, thank you for sending your Spirit so I can stay close to Jesus, too.

Mission for the Week - Before you sit down to read a Bible story, ask God to send his Spirit to help you. When you listen carefully to God's word, the Spirit can send you a special message from Jesus!
¿Cómo sabemos cuándo recibimos el Espíritu Santo?

Mis hermanos y yo descubrimos algo a medida que crecíamos. Hay un poco de papá en nosotros. Cada vez que nos vemos usando uno de sus gestos, expresiones o comentarios sobre una comida, decimos: “¡Me estoy pareciendo más a papá!” Muchas risas y bromas bondadosas han salido de eso. A mamá le encanta, y papá también, aunque dudo que lo admitiera.

Cuando somos confirmados, recibimos los dones del Espíritu Santo. No hay un cambio radical en nosotros que nos haga parecer repentinamente diferentes. Durante un período de tiempo, llegamos a ver que hay un poco del Espíritu en nosotros. Nos damos cuenta de que usamos los regalos, y a menudo, terminamos preguntándonos de dónde vino un poco de sabiduría, o por qué fuimos tan pacientes o sentimos una intensidad en nuestra oración. Tal vez nos sentimos atraídos por profundizar nuestra vida espiritual o encontrar valor al dar testimonio de nuestra fe. Entonces es cuando sabemos que hemos recibido el Espíritu Santo. Tomamos su imagen. Sí, crecemos en edad, gracia y sabiduría, pero también crecemos en nuestra conciencia y comprensión del trabajo de Dios en nuestra vida. Nos volvemos más divinos, dándonos cuenta de que nos estamos pareciendo cada vez más a Dios. Nuestros pensamientos, palabras y acciones tienen esa calidad y otros también lo ven en nosotros. Podrías llamarlo santidad. ¡Pero ten confianza! Hay un poco de él en todos nosotros. (© LPi)
LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

En este Domingo Pentecostés si vienes a misa en mi parroquia veras un río de rojo por todos lados. El coro, los lectores, los ministros extraordinarios de comunión, la gente en los bancos y claro el celebrante y el diácono estarán todos vestidos de rojo Es un espectáculo.

Lo que vestimos sirve solo como un recordatorio de lo que es importante en estas celebraciones litúrgicas. En Pentecostés, fue el Espíritu de Dios que lleno a las cristianos de la primera comunidad cristiana. Usamos rojo para recordar al Espíritu, representado como una llama o un fuego generalmente. Sin embargo si solo usamos rojo para acordarnos del poder del Espíritu sin dejar que nos cambie entonces nuestra acción será solo sentimental.

Los sacramentos de la Iglesia nos llenan del Espíritu Santo. Dios nos toca y entra en nosotros de una manera profunda, como en Pentecostés. Ese primer movimiento del Espíritu creo una Iglesia que creció y floreció, y que permanece viva hoy. ¿Qué te llama a hacer, desde tu interior el que Dios nos mueva y haga grandes cosas con nosotros? Rojo es un color fuerte que usamos en cualquier momento. Las acciones tienen que ser aún más fuertes.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

“Envía tu espíritu y renueva la faz de la tierra!” Solo sabemos que el viento existe por lo que hace. Una pequeña brisa en nuestra cara, al ver un árbol danzando, un copo de nieve moviéndose prueba la existencia de algo causando estos movimientos. Pero, aparte de sus efectos, no podemos ver su origen o la substancia del viento. El Espíritu Santo es el viento de Dios. Cuando la gente ve una nueva iglesia, ve gente creyendo por lo que ven: discípu- los de Jesús cambiando la manera de vivir sus vidas y de la manera que, llevar a cabo sus actividades, observan el valor y convicción de aquellos que han encontrado su fe, que trabajan por la justicia, que le dan de comer a los pobres, contemplando el poder del amor, y viendo como sanan las heri- idas; siendo testigos de la presencia del Espíritu Santo, dándonos a saber que existe algo más grande que nosotros, trabajando y viviendo con nos-otros. ¿Cómo vivimos como testigos del Espíritu Santo?

The Month of Mary is from the end of the thirteenth century. The church dedicated its mother to May for the purpose of giving the relevant secular holiday at that time a Christian significance. Until the eighteenth century, the Jesuits gave great salute to the month of Our Lady. Later, Pope Pius XII and Paul VI also separately recognized the value of this zealous salute.

The significance of the month of Mary is to meditate on her deed to strengthen our trust in God in all matters, to harbor hope in difficulties, and to witness God's love in our lives, just as the Mary accepts the sanctification and salvation of God in one life. At the same time, it is to imitate the virtues of Mary while asking her to pray for us, and can guide us on how to believe and rely on Christ and live out a Christian's life as his witness.
