Priesthood Sunday:
In Midst of Scandal, Catholics Urged to Honor Good and Holy Priests in Nationwide Event

The last Sunday of October, Oct. 28, 2018, is designated as Priesthood Sunday, a one-day celebration of the priesthood calling all United States Catholics to show support for their priests with prayer, public recognition and dialogue. The annual celebration is organized by parish lay leaders and has been sponsored by the USA Council of Serra International, a worldwide Catholic lay organization, since 2005.

The USA Council of Serra International’s choice to reinvigorate their promotion of Priesthood Sunday this year coincides with the new clergy sex abuse scandal sending shockwaves through the Church. Members of Serra International, an organization formed in 1935 to support and encourage vocations to the ministerial priesthood and consecrated religious life, recognize the challenge confronting their promotion of a day to honor the priesthood when such disturbing stories of abuse come to light. However, the distressing news has strengthened their resolve to honor good and holy priests — the innocent majority whose reputations and even safety have been threatened by the unconscionable acts of a relative few.

“There has never been a more important time for Serra,” said Anne Shepherd-Knapp, vice president of the USA Council’s Vocations Committee. “The news is very disheartening but this is not a time to lose faith. We need to pray with great fervor for the purification of our Church and offer our support to the faithful: fellow Catholics who have suffered, those who are losing faith, and our dear priests who have served honorably but are being unfairly associated with the few who have caused such concern and anguish.”

“Our hearts and prayers go out to all those who have been touched by this scandal, especially the victims,” said John Halverson, Serra’s USA Council Membership Committee chairman. “May our Lord hold those still affected by this tragedy in his healing hands and surrounded them with loved ones until they can be made whole again.”

In the weeks leading up to Priesthood Sunday, Catholics are called to reflect on the service priests provide to parishes, schools, and the community at large through various forms of priestly ministry, including the sacraments central to the Catholic faith. On Priesthood Sunday itself, parishes may honor and celebrate their priests in whatever style they choose. In the past, parishes have chosen to mark the occasion with special liturgies, cards, art made by parish school children, a reception after Mass, and more.

Along with National Vocations Awareness Week (Nov. 4-10, 2018), World Day for Consecrated Life (Feb. 3, 2019) and World Day of Prayer for Vocations (May 12, 2019), Priesthood Sunday is part of a suite of global and national events designed to promote a positive culture of vocations in contemporary society.

Priesthood Sunday is coordinated and sponsored by the USA Council of Serra International. Serra International is a worldwide Catholic organization of lay men and women dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Nearly 8,000 members in over 200 clubs are active in the United States. The USA Council office is based in Chicago. (rcan.org)

Considering the Priesthood?

A call to a priestly life is best understood by considering who a priest is. He is a man of faith and prayer called to be a church minister; he proclaims the Word of God; he administers the sacraments; he lives celibately as servant-leader; he builds a parish community that works to bring healing, justice, and holiness to all. Through the Sacrament of Holy Orders, baptized men are consecrated in Christ’s name “to nourish the Church with the word and grace of God.”

The priest stands as a sacramental witness of the presence of God in the world. This vision of priestly life is lived each day in the parishes of the Diocese of Sacramento and the diverse institutions which serve the needs of the people of California. The Diocese is part of a tapestry of ethnic, racial, and cultural diversity. Diocesan priests work in this challenging mosaic of humanity.

From the Diocese

In a letter to the faithful of the Diocese of Sacramento distributed in parishes on the weekend of October 20-21, Bishop Jaime Soto announced that he will release to the public and publish on the diocesan website the names of all priests in the diocese who have been credibly accused of abusing children and young people. He will do so with the guidance of a consulting firm known for its expertise in this work. The report is due to be completed by March of 2019. You can read the letter in its entirety on the diocese website, scd.org.

“Imperfect as our human nature is, we can still love as God loves. We can still love as Jesus did. We can still show mercy just as God shows mercy in His Son, Jesus.”

“Under the inspiration and intercession of our Blessed Mother Mary, may we all pray to our Lord Jesus Christ and to Mary, Queen of Heaven and Earth, to protect the faith of everyone in our parishes — laity, religious, and clergy — and to guard against the evil of the wicked. May the faith of everyone in our parishes be refreshed, strengthened, and renewed.”

“May the faithful in our parishes be nurtured by the love and mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ and of the Blessed Virgin Mary.”

“Let us do all we can to offer our support to fellow Catholics who have suffered, those who are losing faith, and the dear priests who have served honorably but are being unfairly associated with the few who have caused such concern and anguish.”

“I ask each of you to pray for the victims of abuse — always. As their pain is ongoing, so must our prayers for them be. This is not something we do for a period of time, but from this time forward.”

“Since the faith of everyone in our parishes is fundamentally threatened. Let us pray for one another and for our priests. Let us pray for the faithful in our parishes, for our laity, religious, and clergy — for all of us.”

Everyday Stewardship

It was many years ago, but I remember it as if it was yesterday. Before most good basketball players left college early for the NBA draft, the Duke Blue Devils won back-to-back championships in men's basketball. The morning after the second championship, I drove to the campus bookstore in order to be one of the first to purchase commemorative T-shirts: one for me and several more for my parents and wife. A crowd was at the door of the store when I arrived, long before it was open for business. When I finally walked inside, I looked around and saw one shirt in particular I liked. I walked over to it, and as I got close to reaching out to pick it up, a little old lady literally ran into me, spun me around, grabbed the shirt, and shrieked, "It's mine!" As if there was only one shirt in the entire store!

Neither of us were entitled to that shirt. In fact, we aren't entitled to much in this life. Rather than searching to get what we think we deserve or trying to beat out others for a better position in this world, our God calls us to focus on helping others to experience the many gifts available to them in this life. We are called to serve instead of being served. Our mission is to sacrifice ourselves and what we desire on this earth for the Kingdom of God. If we are willing to essentially assault someone to get to a T-shirt, what will we do when the stakes are higher? After my initial shock, I wasn't really angry with that lady at Duke. After all, I would like to think that if she simply asked me for it I would have given it to her. At least, I hope I would have.

Priesthood Sunday

“A Prayer for Priests”

Jesus Christ, Great High Priest,
You are able to sympathize with our human weakness
Strengthen your priests for the work of ministry.
You healed, proclaimed, and taught.
Renew your priests in their concern for the poor, zeal for the Gospel, and personal witness to virtue.
You instituted the sacraments as signs of heavenly grace.
Make holy your priests for this sacred service.
You bore our sufferings and sins upon yourself.
May your priests remain close to the broken-hearted.
Jesus Christ, Great High Priest,
bring your priests ever closer to your Sacred Heart.
Amen.

All Saints’ Day

“Give Them Light and Peace”

God, who gives life to all who believe,
you dwell in unapproachable light,
yet your mercy leads those who hope in you to a place in your presence before your throne.
Grant light and peace to our brothers and sisters who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith
and who have trusted in your never-ending love.
Bring the faithful departed into your kingdom of light, happiness, and peace.
Give them a secure dwelling place
in the mansion of your holiness,
and let them shine with the light of your glory.
Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord,
and let perpetual light shine upon them.
Amen.

Sacerdocio Domingo:

En medio del escándalo, se insta a los católicos a honrar a los buenos y santos sacerdotes en un evento nacional

El último domingo de octubre, 28 de octubre de 2018, se designa como Domingo del Sacerdocio, una celebración de un día del sacerdocio que llama a todos los católicos de los Estados Unidos a mostrar apoyo a sus sacerdotes con oración, reconocimiento público y diálogo. La celebración anual está organizada por líderes laicos parroquiales y ha sido patrocinada por el Consejo de Serra International de EE. UU., Una organización laica católica mundial, desde 2005.

La elección del Consejo de Serra Internacional de EE. UU. De revitalizar su promoción del domingo del sacerdocio este año coincide con el nuevo escándalo de abuso de sexo por parte del clero que envía ondas de choque a través de la Iglesia. Los miembros de Serra International, una organización formada en 1935 para apoyar y alentar las vocaciones al sacerdocio ministerial y la vida religiosa consagrada, reconocen el desafío que enfrenta su promoción de un día para honrar el sacerdocio cuando esas historias perturbadoras de abuso salen a la luz. Sin embargo, las noticias angustiantes han fortalecido su determinación de honrar a los sacerdotes buenos y santos, la mayoría inocente cuya reputación e incluso seguridad se han visto amenazadas por los actos injustificados de unos pocos familiares.

"Nunca ha habido un momento más importante para Serra", dijo Anne Shepherd-Knapp, vicepresidenta del Comité de Vocaciones del Consejo de EE. UU. "Las noticias son muy desalentadoras, pero esto no es el momento de perder la fe. Necesitamos orar con gran fervor por la purificación de nuestra Iglesia y ofrecer nuestro apoyo a los fieles: a los compañeros católicos que han sufrido, a los que están perdiendo la fe, a nuestros queridos sacerdotes que han servido honorablemente pero que están siendo asociados injustamente con los pocos que Han causado tanta preocupación y angustia ".

"Nuestros corazones y oraciones están con todos aquellos que han sido afectados por este escándalo, especialmente las víctimas", dijo John Halloran, presidente del Comité de Membresía del Consejo de EE. UU. De Serra. "Que nuestro Señor retenga a aquellos que aún están afectados por esta tragedia en sus manos sanadoras y los rodee con seres queridos hasta que puedan recuperarse ".

En las semanas previas al domingo del sacerdocio, los católicos están llamados a reflexionar sobre el servicio que los sacerdotes brindan a las parroquias, las escuelas y la comunidad en general a través de varias formas de ministerio sacerdotal, incluidos los sacramentos centrales de la fe católica. En el domingo del sacerdocio, las parroquias pueden honrar y celebrar a sus sacerdotes en el estilo que elijan. En el pasado, las parroquias han elegido celebrar la ocasión con liturgias especiales, tarjetas, obras de arte hechas por niños de escuelas parroquiales, una recepción después de la misa y más.

Junto con la Semana Nacional de Concienciación sobre las Vocaciones (del 4 al 10 de noviembre de 2018), el Día Mundial de la Vida Consagrada (3 de febrero de 2019) y la Jornada Mundial de Oración por las Vocaciones (12 de mayo de 2019), el Domingo del Sacerdocio es parte de un conjunto de Eventos globales y nacionales diseñados para promover una cultura positiva de vocaciones en la sociedad contemporánea.

El domingo del sacerdocio está coordinado y patrocinado por el Consejo de Serra International de EE. UU. Serra International es una organización católica mundial de hombres y mujeres laicos dedicada a promover las vocaciones al sacerdocio y la vida religiosa. Cerca de 8,000 miembros en más de 200 clubes están activos en los Estados Unidos. La oficina del Consejo de Estados Unidos tiene su sede en Chicago. (rcan.org) ¿Considerando el sacerdocio?

Una llamada a una vida sacerdotal se comprende mejor considerando quién es un sacerdote. Es un hombre de fe y oración llamado a ser ministro de la iglesia; proclama la Palabra de Dios; él administra los sacramentos; él vive celibemente como servidor de Dios en el mundo. Esta visión de la vida sacerdotal se vive cada día en las parroquias de la Diócesis de Sacramento y en las diversas instituciones que atienden las necesidades de la gente de California. La Diócesis es parte de un tapiz de diversidad étnica, racial y cultural. Los sacerdotes diocesanos trabajan en este desafiante mosaico de la humanidad.

Los requisitos para ser parte de la tradición del sacerdocio son comprensiblemente altos. La madurez emocional, la buena salud, la inteligencia, un compromiso profundo y lleno de oración para servir a Dios y a su pueblo son esenciales. Los seminarios proporcionan las herramientas, la formación y la dirección necesarias para ser un sacerdote eficaz para la Iglesia y la Diócesis de Sacramento una vez que un hombre ha reconocido el llamado a la vida sacerdotal.

A través del proceso de discernimiento, uno descubre la voluntad de Dios para su vida. Un hombre que explora la posibilidad de una vocación al sacerdocio, a un diaconado o a una orden religiosa puede encontrar ayuda a través de la Oficina de Vocaciones Sacerdotes y Religiosas. Una prueba de discernimiento puede ser útil para saber el próximo paso a seguir. (De scd.org. Visite el sitio web de la Diócesis de Sacramento para obtener más información).

De la diócesis

En una carta a los fieles de la Diócesis de Sacramento distribuida en parroquias durante el fin de semana del 20 al 21 de octubre, el Obispo Jaime Soto anunció que lanzará al público y publicará en el sitio web diocesano los nombres de todos los sacerdotes de la diócesis que tienen ha sido acusado de forma abusiva de abusar de niños y jóvenes. Lo hará con la guía de una firma consultora conocida por su experiencia en este trabajo. El informe debe completarse en marzo de 2019. Puede leer la carta en su totalidad en el sitio web de la diócesis, scd.org.

"Les pido a cada uno de ustedes que oren por las víctimas de abuso, siempre. Como su dolor continúa, también nuestras oraciones por ellos deben ser. Esto no es algo que hacemos por un periodo de tiempo, sino de ahora en adelante.

"La fe de todos en nuestras parroquias, laicos, religiosos y clérigos, ha sido sacudida por estos crímenes vergonzosos. Que la intercesión de nuestra Santísima Madre María nos fortalezca para el viaje por delante con la misericordia y la sabiduría de su Hijo, Jesús."

VERSO DEL EVANGELIO DE DOMINGO
Entonces le dijo Jesús: "¿Qué quieres que haga por ti?" El ciego le contestó: "Maestro, que pueda ver". Jesús le dijo: "Vete; tu fe te ha salvado". Al momento recobró la vista y comenzó a seguirlo por el camino. - Mc 10, 51-52

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO
El Evangelio de hoy está lleno de acción por parte del ciego Bartimeo. Les invito a ver paso a paso lo que sucede en la escena. Él está a la orilla del camino, escucha movimiento y se entera que es Jesús de Nazaret el que pasaba. Enseguida, comenzó a gritar. "Jesús, Hijo de David, ten compasión de mí!" (Marcos 10:47). Para el ciego, sólo Jesús podía salvarlo de su ceguera. Fue persistente, aunque le decían que se callara, gritaba aún con más fuerza. Él sabía exactamente lo que quería; no tenía ninguna duda. Él deseaba ardientemente encontrarse con Jesús. Estaba seguro que Jesús se compadecería de su situación. ¿En su vida ha experimentado alguna vez esa seguridad en Jesús?

Cuando Jesús se detiene y le llama, el tira su manto, y de un salto. Se pone frente a Jesús. Listo para la misión, seguro de sí mismo, atiende a la pregunta: "¿Qué quieres que haga por ti?" Maestro quiero ver. Su fe lo salvo. "Puedes irte, tu fe te ha salvado." ¿Qué hermoso momento encontrar a Jesús, verlo, sentir su bondad y quieres que haga por ti?" Maestro quiero ver. Su fe lo salvo. "Puedes irte, tu fe te ha salvado." "¿Qué hermoso momento encontrar a Jesús, verlo, sentir su bondad y misericordia. Bartimeo ya no estaba solo en el camino, se unió a Jesús en una relación íntima e inquebrantable. Fe en acción es el ejemplo de este ciego. ¿Quiénes son los Bartimeo de nuestro tiempo? ¿Quiénes están en el camino dando gritos? Inmigrantes que sufren, jóvenes que claman por justicia, violencia en las familias y en la sociedad. ¡Señor, ayúdanos a ver más allá de nuestra miopía!

Como nos recuerda el Papa Francisco, es en vivir las beatiudes que encontramos el camino a la santidad. Las beatitudes no son una lista de mandamientos. Son, más que nada, un mapa hacia el Reino de Dios. Es cuando entramos a la con-

El Comité FOTL (Festival de Arboles y Luces), que es el evento principal para recaudar fondos para ayudar a los desamparados, necesita cosas para vender en el festival para la boutique. Los artículos incluyen cosas para las canastas como tarjetas de regalo, tickets de lotería, jabones y otras cosas para él bano; también cosas para cocinar, cosas para el jardín, juguetes, juegos, cosas de je, cosas de bebé. También se necesitan artículos tejidos, bordados o cosidos como gorras, bufandas y panuelos, etc. Buscamos cosas como rosarios, cruces, estatuas y artículos religiosos. Se necesita plantas, ponsetias y otras plantas de las navideñas.

Se puede entregar cosas comenzando 15 noviembre en la rectoria. Postres horneados se recibirán más cerca de los días del festival. Para preguntas por favor escriba a Paula Trujillo al trupaula@gmail.com.

聖西滿，聖達德 (十月二十八日)

聖西滿宗徒，聖經上稱他叫戴洛德，即「熱情者」，以示與西滿伯多祿有別，原籍猶太卡納城。根據聖教極古的傳說，聖神降臨後，西滿赴埃及、美索不達米亞、波斯等地傳教，在波斯為主流血捐軀。

聖達德，一名猶達，次雅各伯的胞弟，與耶穌有表親的關係。最後晚餐那一天，耶穌對宗徒說：祂將顯示給聽從聖道的人。達德就問祂：「主，為什麼你將你自己顯示給我們，而不顯示給世界呢？」耶穌答道：「誰若愛我，必遵守我的話，我父必愛他，我們要到他那裏去，並在他那裡作我們的住所。」(約十四22-23) 猶達遺有書信一封，列在新約的猶達書裏；他勸勉教友，遵守宗徒的訓言，全力攻斥異端邪說。猶達在波斯傳揚福音，為主流血致命。

St. Simon and Judas (October 28)

Saint Simon the Apostle, the Bible called him Zealot, the "passionate", to distinguish him from Simon Peter, was born in Jewish City of Cana. According to the ancient legend of the holy church, after the coming of the Holy Spirit, Simon went to Egypt, Mesopotamia, Persia and other places to preach, and persecuted in Persia.

St. Judas (Not the betrayer of Jesus), younger brother of Judah and Jacob, has a family relationship with Jesus. In the last supper, Jesus said to the apostle that he will reveal himself to those who listen to his words. Judas said to him, "Master, what happened that you will reveal yourself to us and not to the world?" Jesus answered, "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him." (John 14:22-23) Judas has a letter, listed in the Epistle of Jude; he urged the church members to follow the instructions of the apostles, and reject any heresy. Judas preached and was persecuted in Persia.
