...lives are made whole

Like every year at this time, we join all parishes to assist others in need through the Annual Catholic Appeal. Unlike other years, we do so in the midst of restrictions on coming together for Mass in prayer and charity.
Your support in 2021 is very important to our parish and to the local Catholic Charities that must carry out important work in the coming months. In 2020 your gifts helped our charities to quickly extend a hand to thousands of people and families in dire need due to COVID-19.

Como todos los años, nos unimos las parroquias para ayudar a los necesitados a través del Llamado Católico Anual. A diferencia de otros años, lo hacemos en medio de restricciones para reunirnos en la santa Misa en oración y caridad. Su apoyo en 2021 es muy importante para nuestra parroquia y para las organizaciones benéficas católicas locales que deben realizar un trabajo importante en los próximos meses. Én 2020, sus donaciones ayudaron a nuestras organizaciones benéficas a extender una mano a miles de personas y familias en extrema necesidad debido al COVID-19.

charities, parishes, education
Lent is an important time to strengthen our ability to pray. Many people have difficulty praying. We approach prayer as a way to seek union with God, or ask for particular needs, or sometimes simply begin a conversation with Him. As well, we repeat particular prayers in the hope that we gain deeper access into the mysteries of God. All these are important ways to pray, but often, we can find ourselves distracted and short-tempered. We feel like our prayer, rather than leading us to a sense of prayerfulness, is leading us to frustration.

So I present another way to approach prayer that might help lead to these important connections with God; to see prayer as prepare. Jesus uses this image quite often in his teachings, telling us to remain vigilant and be prepared for those unexpected moments when He will return, or even when He is right here. What does it mean to prepare? It requires some thinking. If Jesus were to visit you today, what would you want to have ready for his arrival? What would you not want to have for his arrival? What would you say or do? How would your attitude be for the day? Would you be extra vigilant to hear the doorbell? Could He be visiting you in the form of some stranger or even a close family member or friend? All of these possibilities takes preparation and proper attitude, and prayer time affords us this opportunity to prepare. It might not “feel” like prayer, but it is, because this time of preparing helps to be ready for those important moments when God arrives unexpectedly and unannounced.

So often, we rush around, focused on what needs to get done. Even prayer can be just one more task to rush through and get finished. To see prayer as a time for preparation helps us to slow down and, rather than expect any results or be frustrated by distractions, simply prepare ourselves for God’s presence. This “preparing” can happen in quiet moments or when we’re really busy, as long as we are thinking “I’m preparing my self for God to be present,” we will be praying. It might even be that preparing for God is the same as being with God. Take some time this Lent and prepare yourself to be with God.

Fr. Michael
La Cuaresma es un momento importante para fortalecer nuestra capacidad de orar. Mucha gente tiene dificultad para rezar. Nos acercamos a la oración como una forma de buscar la unión con Dios, o pedimos necesidades particulares o, a veces, simplemente comenzamos una conversación con Él. Además, repetimos oraciones particulares con la esperanza de obtener un acceso más profundo a los misterios de Dios. Todas estas son formas importantes de orar, pero a menudo, nos podemos encontrar distraídos o de mal genio. Nos podemos sentir que nuestra oración, en lugar de llevarnos a un sentido de oración, nos está llevando a la frustración.

Así que presento otra forma de acercarnos a la oración que podría ayudarnos a conducir a estas importantes conexiones con Dios; ver la oración como preparación. Jesús usa esta imagen con bastante frecuencia en sus enseñanzas, diciéndonos que permanezcamos atentos y estemos preparados para esos momentos inesperados en los que regresará, o incluso cuando esté aquí. ¿Qué significa prepararse? Requiere pensar un poco. Si Jesús te visitará hoy, ¿qué te gustaría tener listo para su llegada? ¿Qué no querrías tener para su llegada? ¿Qué dirías o harías? ¿Cómo sería tu actitud durante el día? ¿Estarías más atento para escuchar el timbre? ¿Podrías estar visitandote en la forma de un extraño o incluso de un familiar o amigo cercano? Todas estas posibilidades requieren preparación y una actitud adecuada, y el tiempo de oración nos brinda esta oportunidad de prepararnos. Puede que no se “sienta” como una oración, pero lo es, porque este tiempo de preparación ayuda a estar listo para esos momentos importantes en los que Dios llega inesperadamente y sin previo aviso.

Muy a menudo, corremos, enfocados en lo que hay que hacer. Incluso la oración puede ser solo una tarea más para apresurar y terminar. Ver la oración como un tiempo de preparación nos ayuda a reducir la velocidad y, en lugar de esperar resultados o sentirnos frustrados por las distracciones, simplemente nos preparamos para la presencia de Dios. Esta "preparación" puede suceder en momentos tranquilos o cuando estamos muy ocupados, siempre que estemos pensando "Me estoy preparando para que Dios esté presente", estaremos orando. Incluso podría ser que prepararse para Dios sea lo mismo que estar con Dios. Tómate un tiempo en esta Cuaresma y prepárate para estar con Dios.

Padre Miguel
An attentive heart…

a time of purification and enlightenment

As we journey through Lent, it is a particularly special time for our adults who are preparing to enter into the fullness of the Church’s sacramental life through the RCIA at Easter. Lent, being a penitential season of the Church, makes it a highly suitable container for our Catechumens (now called Elect) and Candidates. Here is a summary of the coming Rites, called ‘scrutinies’.

The scrutinies are emant to uncover, then heal all that is weak, defective, or sinful in the hearts of the Candidates (in the Penitential Rite this weekend), and in the Elect (through 3 scrutinies in the coming weeks).

This 2nd Sunday of Lent: Penitential Rite. Candidates (already Baptized) will undergo a Penitential Rite that serves to mark the Lenten purification as they prepare to receive the sacraments of confirmation and eucharist. It will also serve to prepare the Candidates to celebrate the sacrament of penance.

3rd, 4th, and 5th Sundays of Lent—the Scrutinies. The unbaptized will kneel on the sanctuary steps and ask us to pray for them. Following the prayers, there will be a prayer of exorcism over the Elect calling God’s protection, and their growing in purity of heart as they advance towards salvation.

We invite you to join us in prayer for them in the coming weeks.

Quick Bible Minute: Read the Sunday readings for the 2nd Sunday of Lent. The Gospel this week takes us up a mountain with Jesus, and his disciples, Peter, James and John. They witness him in his Glory as he spoke with Moses and Elijah. Peter and the other disciples were amazed. They get a glimpse of Jesus in his divinity. How do you know Jesus is truly God? What evidence can you find?

LECCION GENERAL
YO CREO
 Cuando nuestros niños comienzan su formación para su primera reconciliación, comienzan por aprender sobre la gratitud con el relato de San Lucas sobre los diez leprosos que fueron limpiados, pero solo uno regresó para agradecer a Jesús. (Lucas 17:11-19).

CORAZÓN DE LA LECCIÓN
El único leproso que regresó nos enseña muchas lecciones.

1. Sé agradecido cuando Dios te bendice.
2. Es rudo no ser agradecido.
3. Cuando Dios te bendice abundantemente, di gracias en el oído de Jesús, lo alabó a gritos.
4. No pospongas las cosas importantes. Eso incluye tu oración diaria e ir a la iglesia. ¿Cuándo regresó el leproso y le dio gracias a Jesús? Inmediatamente. No lo pospuso.
5. Cuando reconocemos las bendiciones de Dios, nos llenamos de alegría.

Cada persona en la historia de la Biblia tiene una lección que enseñamos. Cada domingo, en la Misa, piensa sobre las personas en las lecturas y en qué lección Dios está tratando de enseñarte por medio de su vida.

I BELIEVE
As our children begin their formation for their first reconciliation, they begin by learning about gratitude with the Saint Luke’s telling of the ten lepers who were cleansed but only one came back to thank Jesus. (Luke 17:11-19).

HEART OF THE LESSON
The one leper who came back teaches us many lessons.

1. Be grateful when God blesses you.
2. It’s rude not to be grateful.
3. When God blesses you abundantly, say thank you in a big way. The leper who did come back didn’t just whisper thank you into Jesus’ ear. He praised Jesus at the top of his voice.
4. Don’t put off important things. That includes your daily prayer and going to church. When did the one leper go back and thank Jesus? Immediately. He didn’t put it off.
5. When we acknowledge God’s blessings we become filled with joy.

Every person in every Bible story has a lesson to teach you. Each Sunday at Mass, think about the people in the readings and what lesson God is trying to teach you through their lives.
EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

When Sacrifice Becomes Mundane
It seems to happen every year, like clockwork: we drag a bit, as we enter into the second week of Lent. On Ash Wednesday, we feel a bit like soldiers banging our shields, rushing into battle. “We’re ready, God!” our hearts cry out. “Transform us through sacrifice! You will be done!”

But by now, these Lenten resolutions are no longer novelties — they’ve joined the ranks of everyday inconveniences, which somehow are the hardest to bear. Because transformation, in real life, happens in inches, just as a battle is won slowly in the crash of one sword against another. It’s not always a dramatic thing, to the naked eye. It’s the perseverance in prayer despite weariness, or the continual denial of some pleasure even though there’s that nagging voice in our minds saying: go ahead, God doesn’t really mind.

It’s a week when we all need a shock to the system — and wouldn’t you know it, this Sunday God gives us a double-whammy of dramatic sacrificial scenes. We picture Abraham, who also cried “Ready!” when God called, never imagining what He would ask: the surrender of his long-awaited son. We see Christ himself transfigured, as God shows us what He is ready to give up for love of us.

We must remain committed, persevering daily in acknowledging that everything belongs to God. What we sacrifice, we simply give back to Him.

If God is for us, who can be against us? Can we still reply, “Ready!” when we hear the call of God?

每日當責—在日常生活中體會天主—
當犧牲已成為世俗化之時

就像發條一樣，這是每年都要度過的，在進入四旬期第二週，我們會有些拖延，但是在聖灰星期三，我們感覺有點像士兵敲著盾牌，衝向戰鬥，“上主，我們準備好了！”我們的心高喊著，“經由祢的犧牲來轉換我們吧！祢的旨意將會奉行。”

但是到目前為止，四旬期絕對不再是新鮮的事了，它們已經成為日常生活中不太方便的行事曆。不知何故它已經成為難以承受的事了，因為在真實生活中的轉換，就在方寸間，像劍與劍的對決中，是一場慢慢贏得的戰鬥，以肉眼來看，通常這不是引人注目的事情，儘管我們會厭倦也要堅持祈禱，並要拒絕享受某些樂趣，即便是心中有嘮叨的聲音說，好吧，天主真的不會在乎的。

你知道嗎？這是我們所有人需要進入震撼的一週。這個星期天，天主給了我們雙重震撼的犧牲場面。我們想像著亞伯拉罕，當天主招叫時，他也喊著「準備好了！」他唱著「準備好了！」但從未想像過會問什麼？他奉獻了期待已久的兒子，我們看到耶穌自己已經改變了容貌，上主為了愛我們已經準備好願意放棄一切。我們必須要保持承諾，每天堅持不懈，並承認這一切都是屬於天主的，我們所作的犧牲，只是為了奉還天主。

如果上主是支持我們的，還有誰能與我們對抗呢？當天主招叫時，我們是否仍然能回答：準備好了！
