Mass Intentions

November is traditionally the month in which Catholics remember those who have died. All Masses in November are dedicated to All Souls.

Book of the Dead

It is a tradition at the Cathedral during the month of November to provide a book to write the names of our deceased family and friends. Because of COVID-19, we will not have a physical book in our church this year, but are providing this virtual book as to give opportunity to continue the tradition of remembering the dead. We invite you to include as many names as you wish and to spend time praying for some of the other names you encounter on its pages. May God bless you and your families.

Excerpt from our Young Adults’ Blog:

When Jesus advises his disciples to stay awake, He does not mean to wait around. As a teenager, I assumed that since I was a good person (or I thought I was at least), that I was doing enough to “get into” Heaven. Now I look back and realize that I was being passive, waiting around until it was my time to enter eternity. I was not carving out time to pray, I was idolizing my friends, and I did not even think about bringing extra metaphorical oil while I waited – I was doing the bare minimum… go read the rest at:

Lighting candles has been a significant part of the spiritual life of Catholics. We focus on the great Easter Candle in our church that symbolizes the light of Christ and receive a lighted candle at our baptism to remind us that we are Christ’s light in the world. In addition, we often light candles as part of our prayer. The flame symbolizes our longing to be with God and to offer our heart’s desires in His presence.

Due to Covid-19, we have not been able to light candles at the Cathedral for these special intentions. On Sundays at 9:50 am we will live-stream the lighting of candles for the particular intentions of our parishioners and visitors. Please fill out the form provided and we will light a candle for you and include your petition through live-stream. Thank you for your prayers during these times and I will continue to pray for all of you.

- Fr. Michael
As I write this, our country is still awaiting the results of our presidential election. It has been a difficult year and this election has not helped in easing the tension and pain that resides in our country. I have no interest in speaking about either the candidates or the parties, even though I am aware of the importance of who will be the leader of the most powerful nation in the world.

It is a sad commentary that many of our politicians do not seek to cross the boundaries that distinguish party lines. This childishness to not strive to reach a common ground often trickles down into our smaller communities and even families. It frustrates me to know that many families cannot talk about politics or current events without widening the chasm that already damages many families, as it does our entire nation. Our political leaders must seek ways of corroboration if we hope in any way to remedy the ills that plague our society.

On our part, we must not allow the shallow and disrespectful behavior of many of our politicians to form our own approaches to communal living. No politician or political party is worth losing the presence of the people we love, or the people who are our neighbors. Especially us as Christians and Catholics, we must recognize that the mundane leaders of our country have very limited authority. Our allegiance is always to Christ, the one supreme Leader and King of all. I pray that whatever the outcome of this year’s presidential election, we will not be deceived into believing that either we have elected our savior or crucified him. I pray we are able to keep our eyes on the one Redeemer who truly loves and cares for us, and has cast His ballot in our favor.

Fr. Michael
Mientras escribo esto, nuestro país todavía está esperando los resultados de nuestras elecciones presidenciales. Ha sido un año difícil y esta elección no ha ayudado a aliviar la tensión y el dolor que reside en nuestro país. No me interesa hablar ni de candidatos ni de partidos, aunque soy consciente de la importancia de quién será el líder de la nación más poderosa del mundo.

Es un comentario triste que muchos de nuestros políticos no busquen cruzar las fronteras que distinguen las líneas de partido. Este infantilismo de no esforzarse por llegar a un terreno común a menudo se filtra a nuestras comunidades más pequeñas e incluso a nuestras familias. Me frustra saber que muchas familias no pueden hablar de política o de actualidad sin ampliar el abismo que ya daña a muchas familias, como ocurre con toda nuestra nación. Nuestros líderes políticos deben buscar formas de corroboración si esperamos remediar de alguna manera los males que aquejan a nuestra sociedad.

Por nuestra parte, no debemos permitir que el comportamiento superficial e irrespetuoso de muchos de nuestros políticos forme nuestros propios enfoques de la vida comunitaria. Ningún político o partido político merece perder la presencia de las personas que amamos, o las personas que son nuestros vecinos. Especialmente nosotros como cristianos y católicos, debemos reconocer que los líderes mundanos de nuestro país tienen una autoridad muy limitada. Nuestra lealtad es siempre a Cristo, el líder supremo y rey de todos. Oro para que sea cual sea el resultado de las elecciones presidenciales de este año, no seamos engañados haciéndonos creer que hemos elegido a nuestro salvador o lo hemos crucificado. Oro para que podamos mantener nuestros ojos en el único Redentor que verdaderamente nos ama y se preocupa por nosotros, y que ha votado a nuestro favor.

P. Miguel

October in Review

In Lesson 1 we learned that faith:

- Is certain
- Requires trust
- Requires obedience
- Is necessary to get to heaven
- is summarized in the 12 articles of the Apostles’ Creed

In Lesson 2 we learned that we can know God:

- through reason
- through Divine Revelation
- through Creation
- that God is the Blessed Trinity—One God in three persons

Guía Para Padres, Pagina 40

HECHO A SU IMAGEN,
PERO CAÍDO EN LA GRACIA
Nuestras familias comenzarán a aprender lo que significa ser hechos a imagen y semejanza de Dios. También comenzamos a hacer la historia de la creación explicando el pecado original de Adán y Eva perdió para ellos y para toda la humanidad la amistad armonía que compartían con Dios entre ellos mismos y con toda la creación. Pero aunque el hombre ofendió a Dios, la misericordia de Dios nunca se desvaneció. Él nos prometió a un redentor y entró en pactos con la humanidad.

VERSO DE MEMORIA
GENESIS 1:27
“Dios creó al hombre a su imagen; lo creó a imagen de Dios, los creó varón y mujer.”

PALABRAS A SABER
Alma inmortal: la parte espiritual de una persona humana que da vida al cuerpo. Vivirá para siempre. Es lo que nos permite conocer al elegir libremente y amar.
Santidad original: el estado de gracia y amistad con Dios que Adán y Eva tuvieron antes del pecado original.
Justicia original: la armonía con Dios entre sí y toda la creación que Adán y Eva tuvieron antes del pecado original.
Gracia: la vida de Dios en nuestra alma. Es un regalo gratuito de Dios.
Pecado original: el pecado de Adán y Eva. Debido al pecado original, nacemos sin gracia en nuestras almas.
Visión beatífica: viendo a Dios cara a cara en el cielo.
Credo de los apóstoles: las más importantes verdades sobre nuestra fe católica escritas juntas.

WORDS TO KNOW
Immortal soul: the spiritual part of a human person that gives life to the body. It will live forever. It is what allows us to know, choose freely, and love.
Original holiness: the state of grace and friendship with God that Adam and Eve had before original sin.
Original justice: the harmony with God, each other, and all creation that Adam and Eve had before original sin.
Grace: the life of God in our soul. It is a free gift from God.
Original sin: the sin of Adam and Eve because of original sin, we are born without grace in our souls.
Beatific vision: see God face-to-face in heaven.
Apostles Creed: the most important truths about our Catholic faith written down together.

PRAYERS TO PRACTICE
Sign of the Cross:
In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
Before Meals:
Bless us, O Lord, for these your gifts we are about to receive, through Christ Our Lord, Amen.
For those who have died:
Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let the perpetual light shine upon them. And may the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

ORACIONES PARA PRACTICAR
La Señal de la Cruz
En el nombre del Padre, y del Hijo, y del Espíritu Santo. Amén.

Antes de Comer
Bendicenos Señor, y bendice estos alimentos que nos vamos a servir, y que Tú nos das por Tu infinita bondad. Te lo pedimos por Cristo Nuestro Señor. Amén.

Para los que han muerto:
Concédeles descanso eterno, Señor. Y que la luz perpetua brille sobre ellos. Y que las almas de todos los fieles difuntos, por la misericordia de Dios, descansen en paz. Amen.

MEMORY VERSE
GENESIS 1:27
“God created mankind in His image; in the image of God He created them; male and female He created them.”
EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS -
Buried in Your Backyard

I remember watching a television show about a high school that dug up a time capsule that students had buried 25 years earlier. They had buried it with the purpose of showing others many years later the trends of the day and how student life was at that time. It was a fun exercise and everyone — the current students as well as those now grown — laughed at the clothing styles, corny photos, and lack of technology from years ago.

I wonder how the former students felt about how they had grown in those 25 years. How many of them realized their high school dreams? Did they find their purpose in this world and feel fulfilled in life? Did they use the talents and gifts God gave them to really make a difference in the world?

We have all been given talents and gifts by God to be cultivated and offered back to Him and those around us for His glory. As time has passed, hopefully, we have taken seriously our stewardship of these gifts. But sometimes out of fear, misunderstanding, or even apathy, we have taken one or more of our gifts and buried them, hiding them away from others and stifling all growth. This is no way to honor God and certainly not a path to fulfillment in life. If we have anything buried in our backyard, we might do well to dig it back up, clean it up, and begin building upon it. Like a time capsule, those things will not be buried forever. One day the giver of that gift will ask what you have done with it. When that day comes, I pray you don’t need to find a shovel.
