EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

The 6 Characteristics of an Everyday Stewardship for Lent – Mindful

What is it that tempts you the most? Is it an action, a person, or a place? It is something that seems innocent enough, like a food, a drink, or an event? When you really start reflecting, you find that there are many temptations all around. Even if you are strong and never succumb to a certain temptation, it is still there waiting for a weak moment in your life.

One difficulty in the life of a disciple trying to live a stewardship way of life lies in the temptations we never actually see. We are too busy thinking about past failures or successes, or we are fixated on what possibilities the future holds that we miss the important things going on in the present. Jesus could be standing directly in front of us, but we miss him because we are looking everywhere except straight ahead.

Being mindful means that we are looking out for how and when God will call us this very day. Our decisions this day will have a huge impact on the future. If we only look to the future, we will miss those important calls to action. We may even find ourselves in a desert of sorts, looking for any way out we can find. However, God may need us to give of ourselves for a reason we cannot yet discern while in that desert. We need to stay awake, be aware, and look for His hand in all things. If we don’t, we may even miss the pathway out of that desert when it presents itself.

Have your best Lent yet with this genius plan for fasting and prayer

"Eat, Fast, Feast" offers a blueprint for reaping the spiritual and physical rewards of regular fasting.

It’s a historical reality that not many people realize today, but long periods of intense fasting, interspersed with jubilant days of high feasting, were the norm for many centuries of Christian religious practice.

Today most Catholics fast just two days a year, on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. But New York Times-bestselling author and Catholic University of America professor Jay W. Richards encourages Christians to rediscover the ancient fasting tradition in his new book, Eat, Fast, Feast: Heal Your Body While Feeding Your Soul.

In the book, Richards lays out a detailed six-week plan to follow intermittent fasting and a ketogenic diet during Lent while increasing time spent with God in prayer—and he’s got the science to support him, with extensive footnotes detailing the latest research on the health benefits of fasting.

In some ways, Richards is an unlikely spokesperson for intermittent fasting, which is a trend quickly gaining popularity in the fitness world. For many years of his life, he thought fasting was unhealthy and detrimental. He writes, "I used to avoid fasting for longer than a night’s sleep ... I thought real fasting—freely going without food for many hours or days—undid what I was trying to do with exercise and a healthy diet. Fasting would kick me into 'starvation mode,' I thought. That is, my metabolism would drop into low gear, and my body would shed muscle and store fat. As a strength trainer in college, I taught this to fellow students trying to lose weight and get in shape. As a father, I taught this to my daughters. And for decades, I practiced what I preached."

Richards stumbled into fasting in 2013, after learning about "the toll a grain-heavy diet has taken on health around the world," he writes. Soon after, he switched to a high-fat, low-carb lifestyle for health reasons. But his understanding of intermittent fasting became much deeper when he realized that it offers an extraordinary opportunity for spiritual growth:

"All the major Church Fathers—including Justin Martyr, Polycarp, Clement of Alexandria, and Augustine—recommended fasting, and saw it as a rule for the whole human race ... Augustine—who was not an extreme ascetic—said, 'Fasting cleanses the soul, raises the mind, subjects one’s flesh to the spirit, renders the heart contrite and humble, scatters the clouds of concupiscence, quenches the fire of lust, and kindles the true light of chastity.'"

Can all those benefits really come from the old-fashioned practice of regular fasting? Sure enough, Richards presents a plethora of resources to support his position. The archives of Christian history and religious writings make clear the spiritual power of fasting.

These words of St. Leo the Great describe the benefits particularly well: "Fasting gives strength against sin, represses evil desires, repels temptation, humbles pride, cools anger, and fosters all the inclinations of a good will even unto the practice of every virtue.”

Bringing together the health benefits of intermittent fasting with its enormous spiritual impact is frankly brilliant, and is a task Richards takes seriously. The book has many sections dedicated to fasting as a spiritual discipline, and Richards encourages readers to take up prayer, Scripture reading, and other devotions as a key part of intermittent fasting.

An important point that is often overlooked in discussions of fasting is that it can be itself a form of prayer, when appropriately offered up to God—and an extremely potent prayer at that. Christ Himself once said of demons possessing a young man, "This kind never comes out except by prayer and fasting."

Richards points out, "To this day, Canon Law requires priests to pray and fast ahead of time before performing an exorcism, and to admonish the victim of possession to do the same ... So, when you fast, do everything you can to pair it with prayer." If there is a major prayer intention in your life, the power of fasting and praying for it cannot be overstated.

Perhaps the most hopeful message of the book is that the practice of fasting is intended for most Christians, with the exception of pregnant and nursing mothers, the elderly, and other people with health conditions. Fasting can be good for the body as well as the soul, and it’s more accessible than you may realize.

Richards writes, "God did not intend for fasting to be consigned to the rare monk or hermit. He intended it for everyone. He intends it for you."

Eat, Fast, Feast offers clear guidance to traditional fasting during Lent or any other six-week period, including a shopping list and detailed week-by-week instructions. Most of us can reap the spiritual and physical rewards of this time-honored practice, and Richards’ book is the ideal blueprint for success, helping followers of his plan have their best Lent yet.
WHY DO CATHOLICS EAT FISH ON FRIDAYS?

By Mike Hayes | bustedhalo.com

Catholics are required to abstain from eating meat on Ash Wednesday and each Friday in Lent (including Good Friday). Fish is often used as a substitute for meat-based meals. But of course, with the popularity of vegetarian and vegan diets, there are many other solutions besides fish.

Historically, since about the second century of Christianity, Christians abstained from eating meat on Fridays as a kind of sacrifice and reminder that acknowledged Jesus’ sacrifice on the Cross, which we commemorate on Good Friday. It’s also why we proclaim the sorrowful mysteries of the rosary on Friday. About a century or two later, Lent came into being, as a season of intense preparation for Easter, so the fasting and abstinence was extended to much of Lent.

The Second Vatican Council simplified many Catholic customs and laws. There was too much of an emphasis on sin and sacrifice and some of the practices were rather involved. Many people believed that breaking Friday abstinence was a sin so serious it could land you in hell. They knew the whole thing had gotten out of hand.

So the bishops preserved fasting on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday (meaning to eat only one full meal for the day and then to merely sustain yourself for the rest of the day — two smaller meals that do not equal the one large meal) and abstaining from meat on Fridays during the more penitential time of Lent.

CHRISM MASS

Thursday, April 2, 2020 at 6:00 pm - The Chrism Mass is one of the most beautiful liturgies of the Church. At this Mass the Bishop blesses the oils that will be used throughout the diocese for the coming year. Also as a vivid expression of our unity the priests of the diocese come together to renew their commitment to priestly service. The Chrism Mass is a reminder that we are priestly people, called to proclaim the gospel, inspired by the sacraments we have received. You are cordially invited to join Bishop Soto, the priests of the diocese and your Catholic brothers and sisters to celebrate the Chrism Mass, and to pray for God’s continued blessings on the Church of Sacramento

Turn your clocks ahead 1 hour tonight.
Esta es el primer domingo de Cuaresma, y este año haré un esfuerzo firme para evitar la tecnología durante estos 40 días. Sé que la tecnología es claramente la dirección de nuestro mundo moderno, pero para la Cuaresma necesito simplificar. No v. Sin búsquedas en internet. No hay compras en línea. No hago lo siguiente, y no comenzaré: sin Facebook, sin twitter, sin Instagram u otras formas comunes de comunicación. Me gustaría no enviar mensajes de texto o correos electrónicos y tal vez tirar mi teléfono celular, pero bueno, no soy un ermitaño.

La Cuaresma es un tiempo de limpieza de primavera. Algunos días me siento tan abrumado con la vida moderna que solo quiero poner todo en una caja y guardarlo en el ático por un tiempo. Pero el mundo se comunica a través de todo esto y ciertamente necesito estar en contacto con el mundo. No puedo dejar que mi teléfono de oficina sea el único dispositivo moderno en mi vida, incluso si es muy tentador. Aún así, para la Cuaresma, creo que todos podríamos mejorar en reducir nuestro tiempo en las redes sociales y abstenernos de enviar demasiada información y comentarios e inquietudes innecesarios.

Levante la Biblia, pase las páginas y lea. Sal de tu espacio y mira a las personas a los ojos y comunícate. Pon los pies en el suelo del desierto y camina. Apague los sonidos, el parpadeo, las notificaciones y escuche al Padre. Ore por el mundo, por el futuro, por la vida en estos cuarenta días y sí, sea un ermitaño por un tiempo.

Bendita Cuaresma.

Padre Michael

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA
Las 6 Características de una Corresponsabilidad Diaria para la Cuaresma – Ser Consientes

¿Qué es lo que más te tienta? ¿Es una acción, una persona o un lugar? ¿Es algo que parece lo suficientemente inocente, como una comida, una bebida o un evento? Cuando realmente empiezas a reflexionar, descubres que hay muchas tentaciones por todas partes. Incluso si eres fuerte y nunca sucumbes a una cierta tentación, todavía está ahí esperando un momento débil en tu vida.

Una dificultad en la vida de un discípulo que intenta vivir una forma de vida de corresponsabilidad reside en las tentaciones que en realidad nunca vemos. Estamos demasiado ocupados pensando en los fracasos o éxitos pasados, o estamos obsesionados con las posibilidades que ofrece el futuro que perdemos las cosas importantes que suceden en el presente. Jesús podría estar parado directamente frente a nosotros, pero no lo veríamos porque estamos mirando a todas partes, excepto al frente.

Estar consiente significa que estamos atentos a cómo y cuándo Dios nos llamará el día de hoy. Nuestras decisiones de este día tendrán un gran impacto en el futuro. Si solo miramos hacia el futuro, perderemos esos importantes llamados a la acción. Incluso podemos encontrarnos en un tipo de desierto, buscando cualquier salida que podamos encontrar. Sin embargo, Dios puede necesitar que demos de nosotros mismos por una razón que aún no podemos discernir mientras estamos en ese desierto. Necesitamos permanecer despiertos, estar atentos y buscar Su mano en todas las cosas. Si no lo hacemos, incluso podemos perder el camino hacia la salida de ese desierto cuando se presente.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
Luego lo llevó el diablo a un monte muy alto y desde ahí le hizo ver la grandeza de todos los reinos del mundo y le dijo: “Te daré todo esto, si te postras y me adoras”. Pero Jesús le replicó: “Retírate, Satanás”.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO

Hoy es el Primer Domingo de Cuaresma. Cuaresma significa cuarenta días y es el tiempo donde se prepara la fiesta más importante del año, “La Pascua”. La Cuaresma nos recuerda el periodo de preparación para un verdadero encuentro con Dios. La Cuaresma nos invita al arrepentimiento y a la conversión. Es un tiempo sagrado para orar, dar limosna y ayunar. La Cuaresma dio inicio el 26 de febrero y termina hasta el Jueves Santo, antes de la Misa de la Cena del Señor. La Oración colectiva nos ayuda a ver con claridad el propósito de la Cuaresma: “Concédenos, Dios todopoderoso, que, por las prácticas anuales del sacramento cuaresmal, progresemos en el conocimiento del misterio de Cristo y traduzcamos su efecto en una conducta irreprochable.”

Santos y perfectos, nos recomendaba el Señor Jesús el domingo pasado. ¿Lo recuerdan? Pues, ahora es el tiempo de practicar constantemente el vencer a las tentaciones que se presentan en el vivir cotidiano. La tentación es una gran oportunidad para vencer el mal y persistir siempre en hacer el bien. El desierto es el lugar preferido de Jesús para fortalecerse en el Espíritu del Padre. ¿A qué desierto entraremos? ¿Qué descubriremos en él? ¿A quién encontraremos? Ahora es la oportunidad de retirar el mal que hay en nuestra vida con las mismas palabras con que Jesús al final de este Evangelio rechaza al demonio, “Aléjate, Satanás, porque dice la escritura: Adorarás al Señor tu Dios, y a Él sólo servirás.” (Mateo 4:10). Con Jesús, vayamos al desierto y preparémonos para las pruebas. ¡Señor que tu misericordia nos acompañe en esta Cuaresma que comienza!

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

Necesitamos desesperadamente la temporada de Cuaresma. ¿Alguna vez te has encontrado corriendo en todas las direcciones, cansado, frustrado, agotado y ansioso por el momento en que puedes detenerte, encontrar algo de tiempo para reflexionar y orar, y poner tu cabeza en orden? La vida nos arrastra en todas las direcciones. Además de eso, la presencia del pecado en nuestras vidas nos da una visión borrosa y nos hace olvidar quiénes somos realmente. Podemos perder fácilmente el contacto con Dios. La Cuaresma nos da la oportunidad de volver a tiempos más simples y despejar parte del desorden de la vida. Podemos cambiar un poco nuestras rutinas y darnos cuenta de que Jesús es quien puede arreglarnos con Dios y restaurar lo que originalmente estaba destinado a ser. Nuestra tarea es evitar las tentaciones que pueden tirarnos, distraernos y distorsionar nuestra visión. ¿Eres consciente de qué cosas en tu vida te hacen esto? En las próximas semanas, tienes la oportunidad de evitarlas.

Usted está invitado a unirse a otros cristianos desde el 26 de Febrero al 5 de Abril del 2020 para participar en los 40 Días por la Vida - 40 días de oración, vigilia y ayuno por el fin del aborto. 每日當責 - 在日常生活中體會天主

四旬期過忠誠生活的六項特質之一 經心 (用心, 不要漫不經心)

最吸引你的是甚麼？一個動作、一個人物，或是一個地方？抑或是像食物、飲料，或像是一場盛事那樣，看來夠單純的事情？當你真正去反思時，你會發現周遭都是誘惑，即使你堅強得從不屈服於某種誘惑，但誘惑仍然在那裡等待著你生命中的軟弱時刻。
