MINISTRY FAIR
Pastor’s Corner

So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up.”
~Galatians 6:9~

Church Bizarre

There was an old man who lived in a shoe
He had so many children, he didn't know what to do
Some would play and some would fight
Some would grieve or hide out of sight
No matter the age, the old and the young
Would run on the heel or slide down the tongue
He let them chase or sing or pray
Make quick approach or dash away
He tried to hold them with shoe laces
They cut the cord with sour faces
Any order was quite inconceivable
The mess they created was unbelievable
They had their plans and went about their business
Rebuking the old man and his great Is-ness
The chaos, commotion and dreamy devotion would bubble over like a magic potion
yet the old man said “Let there be light”
and he drew them all in and held them tight!

Enjoy the ministry fair!

Want to open your heart and home to an international exchange student?

Marco from Italy and Thiago from Brazil are here in Sacramento for the 2018-19 school year on a J-1 student visa through Greenheart International, a not-for-profit organization focusing on international cultural exchange programs (www.greenheart.org).

Marco and Thiago are attending MET Sacramento High School (a charter school at the corner of V Street and 8th Street) and will be working as interns in local businesses. Both are seniors and are ‘A’ students with very good English skills. They enjoy playing music (guitar and violin respectively) and soccer.

Thiago and Marco are Catholic and attend Mass. Thiago has volunteered to assist with the Religious Education for Children program. Thiago and Marco are super nice, polite, enthusiastic to help around the home and volunteer for good causes. They are currently with welcome families, but in the next couple of weeks they need to move to permanent families for the rest of the school year. They can be hosted together or with two separate families, but we would like to keep them close by in Land Park, Curtis Park, Midtown, Downtown or surrounding areas so that they can walk or ride bikes to school (we have bikes for both of them).

Please check out Greenheart’s website for more information (www.hostwithgreenheart.org) or call Lori Tibbett directly at 916-440-6626 or 847-915-5820 (mobile). Lori can also send you an email with their bio information, so please write to her at ltibbett@greenheart.org. THANK YOU!

On Sunday, October 14 Cathedral Acts will be Hosting a Bowl-A-Thon / raffle basket fundraiser. We are asking for raffle basket donations or items you would like to contribute to make a basket. If you are interested in making a basket donation or need more information about the bowl-a-thon could you please call/ text Natalie Sundquist (916) 591-1892 or email nati198908@gmail.com. Thank you and God bless for all you do to help make ACTS retreats a life changing experience.

The committee Festival of Trees & Lights invites you to join us to work on crafts on the following dates. We begin at 7P on September 20, October 4, 18, November 1, 15.

Bishop Jaime Soto will celebrate the 40 Days for Life Opening Mass ion September 24 at 8:00 am, at the Shrine of our Lady of Guadalupe, 711 T Street. For more information, contact Vero Avina at 916-205-0713.

Is anything more important than our children’s souls?

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a Montessori-based approach to Christian formation, in which children as young as three form deep, lifelong relationships with our Lord. Learn more at an introductory workshop in Sacramento on Saturday, October 20. For details, visit www.youngsheep.org/workshop.

Sharing the Gospel - Even though they were friends, sometimes the disciples fought with each other. In today's Gospel reading, they were fighting over who was the most important. All twelve of them wanted to be number one-the best disciple. Then Jesus told them a secret. The best disciple is the one who helps other people.

Prayer - Dear God, when I am tempted to fight with my friends, show me ways to help them instead.

Mission for the Week - Ask your family members how you can help each of them this week. When you help them with a cheerful heart, God smiles.

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

Which one of them was the greatest?

“Church Bizarre”
Tenía tantos hijos que no sabía qué hacer
Algunos jugarían y otros pelearían
Algunos llorarían u ocultarían fuera de la vista
No importa la edad, el viejo y el joven
Correría en el talón o se deslizaría por la lengua
Los dejó perseguir, cantar u orar
Haga un acercamiento rápido o huya
Trató de sostenerlos con cordones de zapatos
Cortan el cable con caras agrias
Cualquier orden era bastante inconcebible
El desastre que crearon fue increíble
Tenían sus planes y se ocuparon de sus asuntos
Reprendiendo al anciano y su gran identidad
El caos, la conmoción y la devoción soñadora burbujearía como una poción mágica
¡y los atrae a todos y los mantuvo apretados!

También hay fechas para voluntad hacer cosas en la iglesia. Comienza a las 7p. Estaremos acerca de Mercy Hall, septiembre 20, octubre 4, 18, noviembre 1, 15.
LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Si usted ha volado con la aerolínea Southwest, sabe cómo ordenan a la gente antes de abordar. Uno recibie su grupo con la letra A, B o C y un número. Uno se pone en fila con su grupo y en secuencia de números. Esto significa que antes de cada vuelo se escucha mucha la pregunta "¿Quién está en fila?" Alguna gente no pregunta y se forma en línea. A mí me ha tocado el grupo A-1 y alguien se formó en línea en frente de mí. ¡El A-1 es el primero en la secuencia! Es una locura la urgencia que unos tienen para abordar el avión y que les toque el asiento más perfecto. Para unos, yo pienso que se trata de un sentimiento tener el derecho. ¡Nadie me quitará el lugar que me corresponde! Yo me lo merezco!

Por supuesto, uno no se puede merecer un lugar en línea más que otro. Todos abordan el avión y comparten una destinación. En la vida, una dama actúa como la gente lista para abordar un avión de Southwest. Uno quiere su lugar en la línea más que otro. Todos abordan el avión y comparten una destinación. En la vida, se tardan, pero no hay fácilmente. ¿Quién entre usted no sufre de la envidia, la soledad y de lidiar con nuestras imperfecciones? Porque todo lo que recibimos, sea A-1 o C-30, es un regalo.

--Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

VERSO DEL EVANGELIO DE DOMINGO

"Si alguno quiere ser el primero, que sea el último. El que quiere ser el primero, que se haga el último y el servidor de todos". Después, tomando a un niño, lo puso en medio de ellos, lo abrazó y les dijo: "El que reciba en mi nombre a uno de estos niños, a mí me recibe". - Mc 9, 35-37

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

La humildad es una gran virtud que permite que sus relaciones estén en orden: Dios primero, los demás segundo y usted mismo tercero. Sin embargo, uno puede sufrir con un sentimiento de no estar completo, de ser débil y de lidiar con nuestras imperfecciones. Las pasiones y los impulsos dentro de usted pueden afectar la manera en que usted ve y distorsiona su vida. ¿Quién entre usted no sufre de la envidia, la soberbia o la lujuria? Después cuando uno no tiene lo que desea, se enoja y mucha veces dice que el mundo le debe algo y cuando llega ese momento, todo parece mejor. Hasta los discípulos de Jesús, quien lo conocía mejor que todos, discutía sobre quién era más grande. Buscar la humildad que viene de Dios es lo que uno necesita para vivir una vida más llena de Dios.

PREGUNTAS DE LA SEMANA

Primera lectura - Escuchamos del escritor de Sabiduría el pensamiento de esas personas que se oponen a Dios. ¿Dónde nota esta mentalidad hoy?

Segunda lectura - Santiago habla de las pasiones como la fuente de mucho conflicto en el mundo y en nosotros mismos. ¿Cuáles de sus pasiones han causado conflicto para usted?

Lectura del Evangelio - Jesús ensena que el verdadero discípulo requiere humildad y sencillez. ¿De qué forma reta esta condición de discípulado para usted?

Saint Matthew (September 21)

St. Matthew is also known as Leviticus, and St. Mark calls him "the son of Alphaeus." Leviticus is probably his original name, and later followed Jesus and changed the name of Matthew. Matthew’s father, Alphaeus, was not the same person as the second Jacob’s father.

Matthew is a Galician and a tax collector. Tax collectors imposed taxes on behalf of the Romans, a profession that the Jews despised.

When Jesus called the Matthew as a disciple, he described the following in the Gospel:... From there, Jesus walked forward and saw a man sitting in the checkpoint, named Matthew, and said to him, "Follow me!" He rose and followed Jesus. When Jesus was seated in the house, there were many tax collectors and sinners who came to sit with Jesus and his disciples. When the Pharisees saw it, they said to the disciples of Jesus, "Why did your teachers eat with tax collectors and sinners?" When Jesus heard it, he said, "If you need a doctor, you are not a healthy person, but a sick person. Let’s think about the following: the meaning of “I like how love is better than sacrifice,” because I am not calling the righteous, but calling the sinner." Matthew was called in the second year of Jesus’ ministry.

It should be noted that when other holy records include the list of twelve apostles, Thomas comes behind Matthew. The list of the twelve apostles listed by St. Matthew puts his name behind Thomas, and in front of the name of Matthew, the word "the tax collector" is added.

The Gospel of Matthew was written in Aramaic, the common language of the Jews at the time.

Matthew preached the gospel in the Jewish region, and then went to the east to preach, and was persecuted. He was persecuted in Persia or Ethiopia. His body was buried in Salerno, southeast of Naples.
