Pastor’s Corner

We are over half way through the season of Lent and it is a good opportunity to examine how our Lenten practices have been progressing. How have we revealed to ourselves our greater pursuit of prayer, fasting, and works of charity?

In a society like ours, we are quite familiar with the season of Easter. On the surface, Easter is a season of great joy and feasting. In Easter we try to express the great gift of the risen Savior through joyous music, play and gathering. This is something that regularly occurs in our society. Feasting is an everyday occurrence. In a country with such riches, it is easy to reveal the great themes of Easter, even if, internally we do not grasp or even sense all that God is doing.

We, however, are not in the habit of living a Lenten life. Even our fast days are more sumptuous than many of the feast days for our poorer brothers and sisters. The different seasons of the church in our communities tend to blend into the same routine of overindulgence in which we hardly appreciate either the simplicity and sacrifice of Lent or the feast and joy of Easter. We cannot differentiate between the small whispering voice and the loud trumpet call. Our seasons are simply an effort to fill ourselves with something other than the Body of Christ.

There is still ample time to enter into this season of Lent. Make a substantial change in your diet. Do not eat out or buy any drinks from a bar or café. Turn off the electronics. Even if you can’t pray, sit quietly in the evening or share some spiritual thoughts with someone. Make a generous donation to someone in need. Experience the “letting go” of material addictions. These kinds of changes lead to true feasting at Easter. I’m sure all of us would understand the joy of Easter feasting if we only ate a bowl of rice and one egg each day during Holy week.

Readings

Note from the Pastor: When the RCIA has their scrutinies, we always use the Cycle A readings. So that the rest of the parish walks with them, we at the Cathedral choose to use only those readings at all of the Masses on the 3rd, 4th, and 5th Sundays of Lent. When we get to Palm Sunday, we will go back to Cycle B for this year. Please continue to pray for our brothers and sisters in faith formation.

11 Sunday: (Cycle A) 1 Sm 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a/Ps 23:1-6/Eph 5:8-14/Jn 9:1-41 or 9:1, 6-9, 13-17, 34-38

12 Monday: Is 65:17-21/Ps 30:2 and 4, 5-6, 11-12a and 13b [2a]/Jn 4:43-54

13 Tuesday: Ez 47:1-9, 12/Ps 46:2-3, 5-6, 8-9 [8]/Jn 5:1-16

14 Wednesday: Is 49:8-15/Ps 145:8-9, 13cd-14, 17-18 [8a]/Jn 5:17-30

15 Thursday: Ex 32:7-14/Ps 106:19-20, 21-22, 23 [4a]/Jn 5:31-47

Night Fever March 17

An important element of our Nightfever celebration is Adoration. In a darkened cathedral, lit only by candlelight, the mood is reverent and peaceful, perfect for prayer and reflection. Described on catholic-church.org, "Eucharistic Adoration is adoring or honoring the Eucharistic Presence of Christ. In a deeper sense, it involves "the contemplation of the Mystery of Christ truly present before us.

"During Eucharistic Adoration, we 'watch and wait', we remain 'silent' in His Presence and open ourselves to His Graces which flow from the Eucharist ... By worshiping the Eucharistic Jesus, we become what God wants us to be! Like a magnet, The Lord draws us to Himself and gently transforms us. In its fullest essence ... Eucharistic Adoration is 'God and Man reaching out for each other, at the same time!' "

Pictured below is the original monstrance that was used by most of the successive bishops, beginning with the cathedral founder, Bishop Patrick Manogue. For the first time at a Nightfever celebration, this is the monstrance that will adorn the altar. We are fortunate to have such a significant artifact going back to the cathedral's beginning.

In the center of the sunburst, the monstrance normally has a small round glass the size of the Host, through which the Blessed Sacrament can be seen. Behind this glass is a round container made of glass and gilded metal, called a luna, which holds the Host securely in place. This monstrance is missing the luna, which is why it hasn’t been in regular use at the Cathedral for many years. Using it for Nightfever brings an extra special element to the occasion.

Go to our facebook page and under videos, Father Michael gives an explanation of the various parts of this monstrance.

Join is for a very special evening on March 17 from 8pm to midnight.

HISTORY

Nightfever was founded by students Katharina Fassler-Maloney, a member of the Emmanuel Community, and Andreas Süß, then a seminarian and today a priest. After World Youth Day 2005 in Cologne the pair thought, "This cannot be the end. This great vibe/spirit of the WYD has to go on in our daily lives...!" Only one event was originally planned, but due to its success it was continued, and then spread across Germany, Europe, and beyond. The first Nightfever in North America was held in Halifax, Nova Scotia, in 2012.

On Saturday nights volunteers stand on streets near bars, theaters, and parties in city centers. They approach strangers and say things such as "Hey, want a candle? We’re praying for peace." If the passerby agrees they are welcomed into the church, or the volunteer walks them to nearby church where the event is taking place. Participants are welcome to light their candle and leave, or to stay and pray for as short or as long of a time as they like. When they leave, "their candles burn on as a symbol of their concerns and thoughts."

In addition to lighting candles at the altar, common elements inside the church include the Eucharistic exposed for adoration, contemporary Christian music, submitting prayer intentions, and priests on hand to administer the Sacrament of Reconciliation or to provide prayer, support, and counsel. Nightfever typically goes late into the night.

An organizer in Britain describes Nightfever as "a door opener. For those who once had faith in God we hope they will be renewed through their experience at St Patrick's. For those who have never met Christ we hope this becomes a moment of fruitful encounter." Events often see hundreds and even thousands of people attend. (Wikipedia.org)

The Cathedral Choir and Capella Antiqua join forces with soloists Robin Fisher, Valerie Loera, Salvatore Atti, and Daniel Yoder to provide a moving concert of one of Haydn’s most famous works. First performed in 1768, Haydn’s “Stabat Mater” explores the depths of human emotions, from despair and grief, to lasting joy. This work contains some of the composer’s most rich and deeply felt writing, with moving choruses and soaring solos. Come enjoy Haydn as he was meant to be heard, with period instruments and astounding voices, in the exquisite surroundings of the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament. Friday, March 16 at 7:30 pm. $20 general, $10 student. http://www.capella-antiqua.org.

Way of the Cross - Good Friday, March 30th
The Way of the Cross procession takes place each Good Friday in the hear of the city, where people carry their daily cross, most of the time alone: “If God exists, He has nothing to do with my daily life.” This is the true cross of every day, the cross of a person abandoned only to himself in his most inner need for a never-ending love, truth, beauty and justice. We need the presence of “God-with-us,” Jesus, every day.

9:00 am: Procession begins at Crocker Park, 3rd & N Streets
11:15 am: Final Station in front of the Cathedral Sponsored by Communion & Liberation. For more information, contact Eric Lee at ericaustinlee@gmail.com or online at clonline.org.

You are invited, next Holy Saturday, to walk and pray the 7 Churches Pilgrimage on March 31, at 7:00 am. Starting the journey at St. Elizabeth Parish (located at 12th Street and S Street), you will visit 6 other churches and finish at the Shrine of Guadalupe around 2pm. Bishop Jaime Soto will lead the walk for almost 8 miles of sacrifice and prayer. For more information, please visit radiosatisimosacramento.com, or call 916-442-7389.

Offering Mass for a special intention is a long-standing tradition in the Catholic Church. Masses are offered for many reasons: for the souls in purgatory, in remembrance for someone who is deceased, or in honor of a birthday or special anniversary. If you would like to have a Mass said for someone, please contact the rectory office for help with available dates and times. A $10.00 donation per request is appreciated.

Read the Gospel and Color

Sharing the Gospel - When Jesus saw the blind man, he did not just walk by. Jesus stopped. He knew he could help the man, and honor God at the same time. Showing all of God’s love and power, Jesus healed the blind man’s eyes. For the first time in his life, the man could see Jesus and believe in him.

Prayer - Jesus, thank you for helping the blind man believe in you.

Mission for the Week - Draw a cross and put it in a place where you can see it and think of Jesus every day.

Cuando vi por primera vez a mis tres hijos, los ame con un amor que nunca sabía existía dentro de mí. Estos eran carne de mi carne, hueso de mi hueso y eran el resultado del amor entre mi esposa y yo. Esto los hace míos.

Mi amor continúa con fuerzas en lo que crece y no me puedo imaginar perderlos. Cuando considero a mis amigos que han perdido a un hijo, quisiera detener a mis hijos de manera más fuerte y nunca soltarlos.

Pero en mi camino de discipulado, me he dado cuenta de que estos seres humanos maravillosos no son verdaderamente míos. Ellos pertenecen a Dios. Han sido encomendados a mí en este mundo, pero verdaderamente pertenecen al que los ama hasta más que yo. Sin embargo, no es fácil ofrecerlos de nuevo a Dios, especialmente en tragedia. Si ese día llegaría, ¿cómo lo manejaría? Dios no solamente ofreció a su Hijo al mundo, su ofrenda fue hecha con plena consciencia de que su Hijo moriría una muerte violenta. Dios nos ama tan profundamente que él se sometió a lo que un padre le tiene más valor. Entonces, esta cuaresma, consideraré a mis hijos en lo que reflejo el profundo amor que un padre le tiene a su hijo y el amor aún más profundo que Dios nos tiene.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICA
11 de marzo de 2018 4º Domingo de la Cuaresma
El punto principal en este domingo es descubrir el grande amor de Dios revelado en su único Hijo Jesucristo. Levantado en la cruz para la salvación del mundo. La cruz, es la clave para salir de la oscuridad, es la esperanza de ver la luz a pesar de las penas de la vida. Quizá ha tenido la experiencia de contemplar a Jesús en la cruz, de mirar su rostro, sus manos, su costado y sus pies. ¿Qué sentimientos afloran en su corazón al contemplarlo? ¿Qué cambio radical hace al verlo? Hoy, es el día, de agradecer a Dios por darnos a su Hijo y al Hijo de Dios por aceptar morir por nosotros. ¡Así amó Dios al mundo! Le dio al Hijo Unico, para que quien cree en él no se pierda, sino que tenga vida eterna". (Juan 3:1) El Papa Francisco, nos da pautas seguras de cómo ver el amor de Dios por medio de la cruz. "La salvación solo viene de la Cruz, pero de esta Cruz que es Dios hecho carne. No hay salvación en las ideas, no hay salvación en la buena voluntad, en el querer ser buenos. No. La única salvación está en Cristo crucificado, porque solo Él, como la serpiente de bronce ha sido capaz de tomar todo el veneno del pecado que nos ha sanado ahí".

"Pero, ¿qué es la cruz para nosotros? Preguntó el Papa. "Sí, el símbolo de los cristianos, es el símbolo de los cristianos. Y nosotros hacemos la señal de la cruz, pero no siempre la hacemos bien". (Radio Vaticana 4 de abril de 2017). La cruz nos invita a recuperar la identidad cristiana entre nosotros y a levantar la decadencia moral de la sociedad. ¿Cómo llevo yo la cruz?

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA
Si continúa su jornada de la vida sin un autoconocimiento genuino, sin saber cómo deben estar ordenadas sus relaciones y sin saber qué es la verdad, su camino estará solamente débilmente iluminado. De hecho, cuando tome una decisión equivocada o este confundido sobre su identidad z fácilmente se puede encontrar en una oscuridad. "Porque tanto amó Dios al mundo que dio a su Hijo unigénito, para que todo el que cree en él no se pierda, sino que tenga vida eterna.” Jesús es la luz que llegó dentro de la oscuridad. No es suficiente que simplemente crea que Jesús es el Cristo. Debe vivir su vida como testigo de esa verdad. Las decisiones que tome y las prioridades que establezca dirán la verdad sobre alguien que cree, alguien que esté confundido, o alguien que esté verdaderamente convencido del amor de Dios. ¿Cuáles de esos es usted?

ATENCIÓN: Debido a el Concierto de Haydn a las 7:30 pm, las Estaciones del Vía Crucis en Español el 16 de Marzo se realizará en la planta baja en el salón Mercy.
