AMDG

For the 6th Sunday of Ordinary Time, this bulletin article explains that the second reading (1 Corinthians 10:31–11:1) gives us a great motto that we should post on our bedroom mirrors so that it’s the first thing we see as our sleepy eyes awaken each morning: “Whatever you do, do it for the glory of God.”

Everything! Brush your teeth for the glory of God. Kiss your family “Good morning!” for the glory of God. Go to Mass for the glory of God (in other words, we don’t go to church just for what we can get out of it). Do your work for the glory of God. Drive politely for the glory of God. Shop and eat and greet others for the glory of God. Say yes to the needs of the Church for the glory of God. And so forth. Ad majorem Dei gloriam—AMDG

Faith, Hope and Love

God’s abundant mercy enabled us to bring His tender care to so many in need here in Northern California.

“This year more than 362,000 lives have been touched by your generous support of the Annual Catholic Appeal. Nearly $3.9 million has been pledged by more than 22,000 Catholic households.”

- Jaime Soto, Bishop of Sacramento

Your gift matters in Northern California.
Starting last Sunday, we returned to worshiping together inside the Cathedral with some limits and restrictions. Although we are not out of the woods yet, it certainly feels like we are stepping out of the darkness and “unclean” atmosphere of our COVID-19 experience. Just as in today’s Gospel in which the leper is healed and brought back into unity with his community, so we too are joining together with our Cathedral community. It is truly a blessed experience to be back together, to not feel separated, and to “embrace” our fellow church goers.

Imagine the great joy the leper must have felt in returning to his family and friends. He was so excited that he told everyone about what happened between him and Jesus. As we continue to return to our proper places in our worship experience, its a great idea for us also to tell everyone about our experiences with Jesus. So often we forget how meaningful it is to be together and to worship and receive Jesus. The hope is that we never forget how difficult it was to be left outside, longing to enter. The hope is that we always remember how wonderful it was coming back together and to worship our Lord.

Tell everyone you know how great it is to be together, especially the ones you love. Work towards greater unity, and tell God “thank you” for reminding us how important our faith life really is.

Fr. Michael
A partir del Domingo pasado, volvimos a adorar juntos adentro de la Catedral con algunos límites y restricciones. Aunque todavía no estamos fuera de peligro, ciertamente se siente como si estuviéramos saliendo de la oscuridad y la atmósfera "inmunda" de nuestra experiencia COVID-19. Así como en el Evangelio de hoy en el que el leproso es curado y devuelto a la unidad con su comunidad, también nosotros nos unimos a nuestra comunidad de la Catedral. Es verdaderamente una bendición volver a estar juntos, y no sentirnos separados y “abrazar” a nuestros compañeros de la iglesia.

Imagínense el gran gozo que debe haber sentido el leproso al regresar con su familia y amigos. Estaba tan emocionado que les contó a todos lo que sucedió entre Jesús y él. A medida que continuamos regresando a nuestros lugares apropiados en nuestra experiencia de adoración, es una gran idea para nosotros también contarles a todos sobre nuestras experiencias con Jesús. Muy a menudo olvidamos lo significativo que es estar juntos y adorar y recibir a Jesús. La esperanza es que nunca olvidemos lo difícil que fue quedarse afuera, anhelando entrar. La esperanza es que siempre recordemos lo maravilloso que fue volver a estar juntos y adorar a nuestro Señor.

Diles a todos los que conoces lo maravilloso que es estar juntos, especialmente a tus seres queridos. Trabaje hacia una mayor unidad y digale a Dios “gracias” por recordarnos cuán importante es realmente nuestra vida de fe.

Padre Miguel

Reflexión de febrero
¿Qué es el Misterio Pascual?

El Misterio Pascual es la Pasión, Muerte y Resurrección de Jesucristo. La palabra “Pascual” viene del griego Pascha, que significa “Pascua” y Jesús se convirtió en el Cordero Pascual. (Analizaremos este misterio en más detalle cuando estudiamos la Eucaristía). Decíamos que el Misterio Pascual es un misterio porque, en Jesucristo, una nueva vida surge de la muerte. Como aprendíamos en la última lección, en el Bautismo morimos una muerte espiritual y renacemos en la vida nueva de la Resurrección de Cristo. Esta es una de las razones por las que renovamos nuestras promesas bautismales durante la Pascua. El Bautismo da inicio al proceso de salvación de la muerte eterna y del pecado. Cristo nos abrió el camino al cielo mediante el Misterio Pascual: su Pasión, Muerte y Resurrección. En el Bautismo, nos convertimos en herederos de esa promesa de vida eterna. Como hemos aprendido en las lecciones anteriores, la gracia de Dios sana nuestra alma cuando pecamos. Algunos protestantes, aunque no todos, creen que todo lo que necesitamos para alcanzar la salvación es tener fe en Jesucristo y que no es posible perder la salvación. Los católicos no compartimos esas creencias. Nosotros creemos, tal y como Jesús nos lo dijo muchas veces, que la salvación no se trata de un acontecimiento aislado, sino de un proceso en el que debemos cooperar con la gracia de Dios que nos ofrece.

MOVING INTO LENT
For about six weeks before Easter, Catholics observe the season of Lent. The first day of Lent varies, this year beginning February 17th with Ash Wednesday. Lent is a penitential season when Catholics practice prayer, fasting, and almsgiving as a way of preparing to enter into the Paschal Mystery and the celebration of Easter by renewing our Baptismal Vows and learning how to live them more faithfully during the Easter Season.

MUDARSE A LA CUARESMA
Durante unas seis semanas antes de Pascua, los católicos observan la temporada de Cuaresma. El primer día de Cuaresma varía, este año comienza el 17 de febrero con el Miércoles de Ceniza. La Cuaresma es una temporada de penitencia en la que los católicos practican la oración, el ayuno y la limosna como una forma de prepararse para entrar en el Misterio Pascual y la celebración de la Pascua renovando nuestros votos bautismales y aprendiendo a vivirlos más fielmente durante la temporada de Pascua.

February Reflection
What is the Paschal Mystery?

What Is The Paschal Mystery? The Paschal Mystery is the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ. “Paschal” comes from the Greek Pascha for Passover; and Jesus became the Paschal Lamb. (We will study this mystery in greater depth when we study the Eucharist.) We call the Paschal Mystery a mystery because in Jesus Christ, new life can come from death. As we learned in the last lesson, we die a spiritual death and are reborn in the new life of Christ’s Resurrection in Baptism. This is one reason we renew our baptismal promises at Easter. Baptism begins the lifelong process of salvation, or being saved from the eternal death of sin. Christ opened the way to Heaven through the Paschal Mystery: His Passion, Death, and Resurrection. We become heirs to that promise of eternal life in Baptism. As we have learned in previous lessons, God’s grace heals our soul when we sin. Some Protestants (though not all) believe that faith in Jesus Christ is all that is needed for salvation and that salvation cannot be lost. Catholics do not believe these things. We believe, as Jesus told us many times, that salvation is not a single event that happens to us, but is a process in which we must cooperate with the grace God offers us.

Quick Bible Minute: Read this Sunday’s 2nd reading, St. Paul’s first letter to the Corinthians 1 Cor 10:31-11:1 Saint Paul tells us, “...whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.” Brushing your teeth? Do a good job and God will be glorified. Have to take out the trash? Do it for God. In doing small things well, we train our minds and bodies for the future moment we may need to do something BIG for God. What small thing can you do to glorify God today?

Minuto rápido de la Biblia: Lea la segunda lectura de este domingo, la primera carta de San Pablo a los Corintios 1 Cor 10:31-11:1 San Pablo nos dice: “...hazlo todo para la gloria de Dios”. ¿Hiciste bien tus tareas? Hazlo por Dios. Al hacer bien las cosas pequeñas, entrenamos nuestros cuerpos y mentes y somos más propensos al momento futuro en el que podamos hacer algo GRANDE para Dios. ¿Qué pequeña cosa puedes hacer para glorificar a Dios hoy?
EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Unfailing Goodness of God

I have always wondered why Jesus told the cleansed leper not to publicize how he had been healed by the Son of God. It’s not that I can’t understand why Jesus would want to keep the matter quiet — after all, he knew that as soon as people heard, he would be mobbed with requests for healings, and his movements restricted.

What gets me is the fact that Jesus simply must have realized the leper would not listen to him. Why give someone a command you know they will ignore? It’s a complicated question, and when I reflect on it, I can’t help but connect it to another equally complicated question: why does God, all-good and all-knowing, allow bad things to happen?

Yes, God is all-good and all-knowing. So when He gives us free will, He knows what we will do with it. However, He is also all-powerful. He can and will bring good from any situation, any tragedy, or even any instance where someone ignores Him.

Was it a sin for this leper to do other than what Jesus had said? That’s a heavy question for a Sunday morning! But it’s plain to see that, even though this man ignored Jesus’ command, God still used his actions. How many were brought to Christ because of the news spread by this leper!

As someone trying to live out a stewardship way of life, what is God requesting of you right now?
