Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament

March 25 2018 * Palm Sunday and Holy Week
"Let the trumpet of salvation sound aloud our mighty King’s triumph!"

Soon we will be celebrating holy week and the Easter liturgies. This time of year brings us to the very center of our life with Christ who died and rose from the dead. There is no other event in history that compares to the greatness and love revealed to us at Easter. The Church marks these as our holiest days of the year. We are encouraged to direct our every thought and use of energy toward being a part of these days. Whether we are at home, work, or in the Cathedral, we keep our lives focused on the dying and rising Christ. In this bulletin is a schedule of all the liturgies celebrated for Holy Week this year. Please find time to worship with your parish community. May God bless you and fill you with His Hope.

Father Michael O’Reilly

Q: Where do Palm Sunday palms come from and where should they go?

A: The Palm Sunday celebration has ancient origins. Beginning the liturgy "outside" the church, we symbolically reenact Christ's entry into Jerusalem. The crowds in ancient Israel waved palm branches - a symbol of royalty - to welcome Jesus. These days, obtaining palms takes a lot of planning and coordination, as hundreds of thousands of churches worldwide need them on the same day! Many in the United States order palms from Florida, California, Texas, or Central America. Many companies stress the sustainability of their production and the just wages paid to their workers.

The palms used on Palm Sunday are blessed at an earlier Mass. This means they shouldn't end up in the trash! Many people weave palms into crosses or families display them in their homes. If you do not plan on displaying your palms throughout the year, they should be burned, buried, or left at the church. In the final case, the palms are burned to provide the ashes for next year's Ash Wednesday service.
Triduum

Holy Thursday brings the end to Lent. That night we begin the Triduum that is the center of our faith, and you are invited to make these Three Days different from all the days of the year.

Adults in the community should plan ahead so that the whole time from Thursday night until the Easter Vigil is free of social engagements, free even from unnecessary work, free of entertainment, free of meals except of the simplest nourishment. We are asked to fast during Good Friday and to continue fasting, if possible, all through Holy Saturday as best as we can, so that we come hungry and full of excitement to the Easter Vigil. We make Good Friday and Holy Saturday free for prayer and reflection and preparation and silence. The church is getting ready.

Whether you are young or old, currently active in the parish or not, please set these days aside. All of us should know that our presence for the liturgies is not just by invitation. We are all needed here. All of us need this whole community together on its greatest days.

On these Three Days, we gather a number of times. Together we hear some of the church’s most beautiful prayers and scriptures and we make some of our finest music. Please look closely at the parish schedule and make plans to take part in the various liturgies and other gatherings of Holy Thursday night, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. Above all, come on Saturday night for the Vigil.

Thursday evening we enter into the Triduum together. After listening to the scriptures, we do something strange: we wash feet. Some of us go down on our knees with pitchers of water, basins and towels. Jesus gave us this image of what the church is supposed to look like, act like. The evening liturgy has no ending: whether we stay to pray awhile or leave, we are now in the quiet and peace and glory of the Triduum.

We gather quietly on Friday and listen to scripture. We pray for all the world’s needs. Then there is another once-a-year event: the holy cross is held up in our midst and we come forward one by one to do it reverence with a kiss or a bow or a genuflexion. We experience the ancient Eucharistic fast. We continue in fasting, prayer and vigil, in rest and quiet through Saturday. This Saturday for us is like God’s rest at the end of creation. It is Christ’s repose in the tomb.

Hungry now and excited, the church gathers in the darkness and lights a new fire and a great candle that will make this night bright for us. We listen to some of the most powerful scriptures in the Bible, then we pray to all our saints to stand with us as we go to the font and bless the waters. There the catechumens are baptized and anointed. These are moments when death and life meet, when we reject evil and give our promises to God. Together we go to the table and celebrate the Easter Eucharist. Easter Sunday begins and we are ready for Fifty Days of rejoicing. [Source: Supplement to the Sunday Bulletin of St. Paul Parish, Saskatchewan, SK, Canada.]

David, shines as the only light of goodness in David’s dreadful life in the camp. Johannes, like an angel, visits David on his journey north, supporting him spiritually and emotionally.

David on his way north encounters opposition, challenges that impede his mission, but despite them all he maintains his focus, he perseveres, knowing that reaching north to Denmark, to deliver the envelope, is what he has to do. We witness him in a world where the words of Christ, “See, I am sending you out like sheep into the midst of wolves; so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves.”, are words that are seen in practice. David, only knowing the evil of life in the camp, knows only how to survive, trusting others and acknowledging true good are nowhere on his radar, and in a world maintained in existence by a good God, David does run into genuine help, but his unfortunate upbringing and clear instructions by the guard have him distrustful of everyone, and as the viewer, we can sympathize with David.

David’s journey, in a sense, with spoilers avoided, serves as a metaphor for our journey in life back home to God. As he ventures north to Denmark, with his mysterious envelope he must protect, as we do our souls, we see him challenged, but also see him helped, as we are in life as we strive towards a closer relationship with God on our journey. I am David is a movie that moves us to hopefully acknowledging in a practical way, the response to the problem of evil, that being, that evil in the world is not a result of a careless God but a result of careless people who abuse the gift of free will (choice) given by a just and all loving God. And with this knowledge praying for the grace to make the right choices, as hard as they may be at times, and for the grace of perseverance, so that we may, despite the problem of evil, stay focused on our journey “north”.

PONTIFICAL GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION
Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Through the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you stand in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land as a witness of peace, supporting Catholics there in parishes and schools, maintaining Christian shrines and caring for refugees in the Holy Land. Please make your check payable to the name of your parish. Please be generous.

A MESSAGE FROM SISTER JENNY & FAITH FORMATION:
Thank you Parents, Catechists, Students, and Friends for all your effort in making the baby bottle fundraiser we held last year to raise money for the underprivileged children serviced by Missionary Childhood Association and the pro-life work of the Sacramento Life Center such a great success. We gave each organization $2,500 each. Congratulations!!

EASTER LILIES
Part of celebrating our sacraments is helping with the care of our beautiful Cathedral. This includes not only making sure it is well maintained and respected, but also beautiful in its ability to reflect God’s glory and sacredness. This year, we invite you to assist in our Easter environment by bringing potted lilies (any size) to Mary’s Chapel in the Cathedral on Palm Sunday, and throughout Holy Week, or drop them by the rectory during normal business hours. You can dedicate your flowers to a loved one by writing their name on a card included with your flowers. Or you can make a donation for flowers on cathedralsacramento.org/giving.

7 CHURCHES PILGRIMAGE
You are invited, next Holy Saturday, to walk and pray the 7 Churches Pilgrimage on March 31, at 7:00 am. From St. Elizabeth Parish (located at 12th Street and S Street), you will visit 6 other churches and finish at the Shrine of Guadalupe around 2pm. For more information, please visit radiosatisimosacramento.com, or call 916-442-7389.

Sharing the Gospel - Your mom tells you, “Grandma should be here any minute.” You watch out your window for her little red car to come down your street. After she parks her car, you run out to meet her. You are so happy she came to visit! The people in today’s Gospel were waiting for a king to come. This king would ride into Jerusalem, not in a little red car, but on a donkey. When the people saw Jesus riding on the donkey, they knew he was the king that they were waiting for. They ran out to meet him and waved palm branches in the air. They were so happy he came.

Prayer - God, I am so happy you sent Jesus to be my king.

Mission for the Week - Invite your Grandma over to visit. Ask her to read John 12:12-16 to you.

“Faithless is he who says farewell when the road darkens.”
~J.R.R. Tolkien~
Pronto estaremos celebrando la semana santa y las liturgias de Pascua. Esta época del año nos lleva al centro mismo de nuestra vida con Cristo que murió y resucitó de entre los muertos. No hay otro evento en la historia que se compare con la grandeza y el amor revelado a nosotros en la Pascua. La Iglesia los señala como nuestros días más sagrados del año. Nos alienta a dirigir todos nuestros pensamientos y el uso de la energía para ser parte de estos días. Ya sea que estemos en casa, en el trabajo o en la Catedral, mantenemos nuestras vidas enfocadas en el Cristo moribundo y en ascenso. En la parte posterior de esta carta hay un calendario de todas las liturgias celebradas para la Semana Santa de este año. Por favor encuentre tiempo para adorar con su comunidad parroquial. Que Dios te bendiga y te colme de Su Esperanza.

P: ¿De dónde vienen las palmeras de Domingo de Ramos y a dónde deberían ir?

R: La celebración del Domingo de Ramos tiene orígenes antiguos. Comenzando la liturgia "fuera" de la iglesia, simbólicamente recreamos la entrada de Cristo en Jerusalén. Las multitudes en el antiguo Israel agitaban ramas de palmeras, un símbolo de la realeza, para dar la bienvenida a Jesús. En estos días, obtener palmas requiere mucha planificación y coordinación, ya que cientos de miles de iglesias en todo el mundo las necesitan en el mismo día! Muchos en los Estados Unidos piden palmeras desde Florida, California, Texas o América Central. Muchas compañías enfatizan la sostenibilidad de su producción y los salarios justos pagados a sus trabajadores.

Las palmas utilizadas en el Domingo de Ramos son bendecidas en la misa. ¡Esto significa que no deberían terminar en la basura! Muchas personas tején palmas en cruces o las familias las exhiben en sus casas. Si no planea exhibir sus palmas durante todo el año, deben quemarlas, enterrárlas o dejarlas en la iglesia. En el caso final, las palmas se queman para proporcionar las cenizas para el servicio del miércoles de ceniza del próximo año.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO
El Domingo de Ramos tiene doble toque de emociones en los corazones de los fieles. La Liturgia está llena de alegría por la entrada triunfal de Jesús a Jerusalén entre la multitud que lo celebra como Rey. Por otra parte, lo envuelve un ambiente de tristeza, ya que todo está orientado hacia el Calvario donde el momento trágico llegara. La Pasión, y la muerte del Señor. Como comunidad de creyentes, nos preparamos para la Semana Santa y el preámbulo es el Domingo de Ramos. Hay que tomar tiempo para preparar todos los detalles del Triduo Pascual. Nada debe hacerse en solitario, trabajar en equipo es esencial.

En la carta de San Pablo aparece de modo especial la alegría y la tristeza de la Celebración de hoy. "Por eso, Dios lo engrandeció y le dio el Nombre que esta sobre todo nombre, para que al Nombre de Cristo Jesus es el Señor, para gloría de Dios Padre". (Filipenses 2:9-11). ¿Qué comprendemos de este misterio? ¿Cómo contribuiremos al Señor todo el amor que nos ha dado? ¿Que el Señor aumente nuestra fe al agitar las palmas en honor a Cristo Victorioso! El Papa Francisco, nos pide reflexionar en lo siguiente. "Así, al mismo tiempo que también no-sotros festejamos a nuestro Rey, pensamos en el sufrimiento que él tendrá que sufrir en esta Semana. Pensamos en las calamidades, los ultrajes, losengaños, las traiciones, el abandono, el juicio in-icuo, los golpes, las azotes, la corona de espinas...y, en definitiva al via crucis, hasta la crucifixión".

VISIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA
Hoy en día, algunos de los temas más conmovedores están en nuestro enfoque central: el sentir alabanza y honor, el miedo, la ansiedad, la travesía, la desesperación, la duda, la confianza, la esperanza, la tristeza, la separación, el sufrimiento, la muerte, la determinación y la valentía. Estos son unos de los sentimientos y realidades con los que lucha el ser humano. Jesús, Hijo de Dios, lo experimenta todos. En el camino de la vida, tenemos que considerar el significado de datos sentimientos. ¿Cómo caben dentro de toda mi vida? Jesús nos demuestra claramente que hasta las cosas que nos dan miedo pierden su poder cuando descubrimos que es-tamos siendo guiados hacia una nueva vida. El sufrimiento es re-dentor. El pecado y la muerte permiten que la gracia y la vida del amor incondicional de Dios lo vence todo. Que veamos en el camino de la Cruz de Jesús el camino hacia la verdad que debemos seguir.

*Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?” ~ John 11:25-26~
Sufferings:
Most of us would prefer to avoid sufferings and pain. No one with a sound mind will go looking for sufferings. Yet, life without pain and sufferings is not life. No matter what, there will no doubt be some form of pain and sufferings in life. While it is not about avoiding sufferings, how should we as Christians respond to life’s many challenges?

The Palm Sunday readings give us the answer in Jesus Christ.

Taking up human form and including the emotional anguish of facing rejections and humiliation, Jesus shows us the way to walk through pain and suffering, with great unwavering faith in God our Father. Jesus walk through life and taking the full pain and suffering so that we too may find courage to walk through our own challenges in life. As disciples of Jesus, let us walk through our journey of pain with Faith and trust that Jesus will walk with us and also give us the grace to bear all our hardships.

Why pray the Stations of the Cross? 8 reasons from Pope Francis:
- They allow us to place our trust in god
- They put us into the story
- They remind us that Jesus suffers with us
- They compel us to action to show the love of Jesus
- They helps us make a decision for Christ
- They reveal god’s response to evil in the world
- They give us the certainty of god’s love for us
- They guide us from the cross to the resurrection
