Then Jesus said to her in reply, “O woman, great is your faith. Let it be done for you as you wish.” And the woman’s daughter was healed from that hour.

“Anything in life worth having is worth working for. “ Andrew Carnegie

For many of us, it is fairly obvious that the important things in our lives require us to work for them. We see this modeled in the Canaanite woman who is fighting for the life of her daughter. Her daughter is important to her, and she is willing to risk shame and insult in order to help her daughter. Her efforts are rewarded. In addition, she also models her own desire to know Christ. She is ready to sacrifice whatever is needed to get to the truth of Jesus, even if He himself puts up obstacles. The path to Jesus requires us to have to work. Good things do not come easy. Easy things come easy, and usually they do not last nor have value. Life with Christ comes hard, requires work and sacrifice and is the greatest value that endures forever.

Society is filled with many promises that come easy; spend a little money, swallow a little pill, buy the latest gadget and your life will be perfect. When I write my pastor’s corner, I often try to imagine what people are longing to hear. Of course, I mostly write what I am longing to say. Sometimes, it actually works out that the two agree. I realize, as I grow older, that I don’t really know what others want. I suppose each one of us is our own person and we all have different desires and needs. As well, most people don’t have the energy or desire to read the bulletin or what I write, and of course, it’s likely I’m not writing anything they don’t already know.

I do know that I want to tell everyone “God loves you without limits.” When we realize how much God loves us, our life necessarily takes on new meaning. In the end, though, most of us are not looking for new meaning. Rather, we want to hear confirmation of our old meaning. So I will say that God loves you no matter how stuck and in a rut you are. He loves you no matter how much you avoid Him and seek easy paths. He loves you no matter how much time you waste, in spite of your sins. He loves you when you’re happy, sad, sober, drunk, alone, surrounded, depressed, preoccupied or loving. He loves you. And you’re worth making Him work for it. God loves You! So, deal with it!

Father Michael
“Vale la pena trabajar por cualquier cosa en la vida que valga la pena tener. " Andrew Carnegie

Para muchos de nosotros, es bastante obvio que las cosas importantes de nuestra vida requieren que trabajemos por ellas. Vemos esto por ejemplo en la mujer Cananea que lucha por la vida de su hija. Su hija es importante para ella y está dispuesta a arriesgarse a la vergüenza y al insulto para ayudar a su hija. Sus esfuerzos se ven recompensados. Además, también modela su propio deseo de conocer a Cristo. Ella está dispuesta a sacrificar lo que sea necesario para llegar a la verdad de Jesús, incluso si él mismo pone obstáculos. El camino a Jesús nos obliga a trabajar. Las cosas buenas no son fáciles. Las cosas fáciles vienen fácil y, por lo general, no duran ni tienen valor. La vida con Cristo es difícil, requiere trabajo y sacrificio y es el valor más grande que perdura para siempre.

La sociedad está llena de muchas promesas que son fáciles; gaste un poco de dinero, tome una pequeña pastilla, compre el último modelo de aparatos electrónicos y su vida será perfecta. Cuando escribo mi sección en el boletín, La Esquina del Pastor, a menudo trato de imaginar lo que la gente anhela escuchar. Por supuesto, escribo principalmente lo que deseo decir. A veces, resulta que los dos están de acuerdo. Me doy cuenta, que a medida que voy envejeciendo, no sé realmente lo que quieren los demás. Supongo que cada uno de nosotros somos nuestra propia persona y todos tenemos diferentes deseos y necesidades. Además, la mayoría de las personas no tienen la energía o el deseo de leer el boletín o lo que escribo y, por supuesto, es probable que no esté escribiendo algo que ustedes ya no sepan.

Sé que quiero decírles a todos: "Dios te ama sin limites". Cuando nos damos cuenta de cuánto nos ama Dios, nuestra vida necesariamente adquiere un nuevo significado. Sin embargo, al final, la mayoría de nosotros no buscamos un nuevo significado. Más bien, queremos escuchar la confirmación de nuestro antiguo significado. Así que diré que Dios te ama sin importar lo atrapado que estés en la rutina. Él te ama sin importar cuánto lo evites y busques caminos fáciles. Él te ama sin importar cuánto tiempo pierdes, a pesar de tus pecados. Te ama cuando estás feliz, triste, sobrio, borracho, solo, acompañado, deprimido, preocupado o amoroso. Él te ama. Y vale la pena hacer que Él trabaje por ello. ¡Dios te ama! Entonces, ¡acéptalo!

Padre Miguel

CATHOLIC VIEWPOINT, FAITH, HOPE and LOVE hosted by Fr. Michael Kiernan. View on Comcast 20, Consolidated 19 and AT&T 14, Times: Sun. 7:00 AM, Tues. 9:30 AM and Thurs. 5:00 PM. All shows are also on YouTube and website: CatholicviewpointFHL.com
Sundays are busy days for the Cathedral Young Adults. The day begins at 6 AM, when the first few Young Adults arrive to assist with set-up for the outdoor Mass at 7:30 AM. We are unrolling banners, setting up chairs, and moving plants as we joyfully prepare for the Congregation. Around 7AM, our brothers and sisters begin arriving for Mass, warmly greeted by our Welcoming Committee to be checked-in and seated. After the outdoor Mass, more Young Adults arrive to set up the equipment for the livestreamed Masses throughout the day.

This ministry of assisting with the celebration of Mass, both in-person and virtually, is one that the Cathedral Young Adults have enthusiastically embraced in light of the crisis our world finds itself in. Our members have spent countless hours behind the scenes creating Contact Tracing spreadsheets, setting up cameras, filming videos, coordinating social-distancing protocols, and meeting to discuss how we may best serve the Cathedral community.

Personally, I have been most involved with the Welcoming Committee. If you’ve joined us for a Sunday Mass, you’ve seen me with my blue mask and my iPhone in hand as I check folks into Mass. This ministry of greeting and checking-in has been an absolute gift, and I have thoroughly enjoyed meeting each and every one of you that joins us for the celebration of Mass. I have been so moved as I encounter the patience, excitement, and gratitude of the Cathedral community as we do our best to ensure we are able to come together safely and responsibly in these uncomfortable times.

We don’t know how long this crisis will last, but I can see that Christ is with us as I encounter the both the commitment and dedication of the Young Adults in their service and the gratitude and joy of those whom they serve. There are many more busy Sundays ahead, but as we continue to allow the Holy Spirit to console us, inspire us, and guide us in our ministry of welcoming the community home to Mass, behind my mask I’ll be smiling.

Are you a young adult and looking for community with other young adults and wanting to grow in faith? Come join the Cathedral Young Adults!

Whether it’s the well-being of our kids, the health of our family members, job security, or various national and international crises, everywhere we look there seems to be something to worry about.

But here’s the thing: worry is utterly useless. It can’t fix a problem; it robs us of peace; and it doesn’t help us become better people. Sure, some of us are more prone to anxiety, overthinking, and brooding than others, but all of us can learn how to worry less and live with greater trust and surrender. Here are five ways (three this week, two next week) to do that:

PRACTICE THE PRESENT MOMENT. Worry may be part of the human condition, but even Jesus had something to say about it in the Bible: "Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own." (Matt 6:34).

Note that Jesus doesn’t say that life has no troubles; He says that each day has its own troubles and we should focus only on those. Living in the present moment doesn’t happen overnight — it takes practice. Which means it takes intentional action. The more you practice living in the moment by focusing on whatever is before you, the easier it becomes. And as you do, your worry will lessen because you’re no longer thinking about what may happen tomorrow or next week or next year.

“Be not anxious about your life.”
Matthew 6:25

PLAN FOR TOMORROW. So does that mean we shouldn’t think about tomorrow at all? That wouldn’t make much sense, would it? Instead of worrying about tomorrow, though, we should plan for it. Every busy mom knows the anxiety of realizing it’s 6:00 p.m. and she has no clue what’s for dinner. But if she’s created a meal plan for the week and the ingredients are in the house, she can rest easy. Planning for tomorrow helps ease certain kinds of worry.

ENTRUST YOURSELF AND YOUR LOVED ONES TO GOD’S PROVIDENCE.

No matter how much we try, we can’t control everything in our lives. We must learn to trust God. When you wake up— and whenever you begin to worry during the day — stop for a moment and give your concerns to God. Consider adopting a short and simple prayer such as, "Lord, I abandon myself to your will." Or, "Jesus, I trust in You." As your trust and surrender grows, your worry will lessen.
As a family make a list of those you want to pray for this week and offer an Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be for each intention.

En familia, hagan una lista de aquellos por quienes quieren orar esta semana y ofrezcan un Padre Nuestro, Ave María y Gloria por cada intención.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
The Challenge of Stewardship

Every day we are called by Christ to respond in some way. The more practice we have at giving of ourselves freely and living in His presence, the easier it is to discern that call. Once we hear the call, the choice is ours: will we respond with yes or no? We could say that we are not required to say yes because God has given us free will. However, our response speaks much to where we are in our maturity of faith. When we were children, the word “no” used to be one of our favorites. If we continue to say that as we get older, well, that says something about where we are in our walk with the Lord. If we truly are disciples of Jesus Christ and are serious about growing in our faith, we will say “yes.” We are not required to say yes, but we say yes because that is who we have become.

This is the challenge of a stewardship way of life. Have we matured enough to say yes when God calls, regardless of how much our answer may cost us? What matters more to us: what it will cost us or our relationship with Jesus? Some days we will easily be able to say yes. The grace and love he gives us will be plenty to see us through whatever situation in which we find ourselves. However, we are imperfect beings and there will be days when we are more into ourselves than him. It is on those days that we find ourselves at a true crossroads of a challenge. The choice is always ours. Hopefully, our faith will be strong enough. His call is never for his own sake. He calls us because the world he created and the Church he instituted need us. They wait just as he does for our response.

－聖善生活的挑戰

基督每天召喚我們用各種方式來回應祂。我們越是嘗試自由的奉獻自己，並活在基督內生活，越容易辨別召喚。當我們聽到召喚時，我們可以選擇回答“是”或“不”，我們沒有被要求肯定的回
答，因為天主給了我們自由的意志。但是，我們的反應充分地表現了信仰的成熟度。當我們在孩提時，說“不”是我們最喜歡的慣用語。如果我們如此持續及至年長，那就是表現我們是否與主同行？如果我們確實是耶穌基督的門徒，並認真地增進自己的信仰，我們將會說“是”，這不是被規定要說“是”，而是自動自發的說“是”，因為我們想成為門徒。

這是聖善生活的挑戰，無論我們要付出多少代價，我們成熟的信仰在回復天主的召喚時說“是”了嗎？對我們來說甚麼更重要的呢？是要付出多少代價？ 還是與主耶穌的關係？ 有時候說“是”很容易，因為祂給我們的恩典和愛，足以使我們自己能夠面對任何情況。但是，我們不是完美的人，我們更多時候是憚自己而不是信靠祂，當我們發現自己真正處於挑戰的十字路口的時候，要如何做出選擇？ 選擇權仍在於我們自己。希望我們有足夠堅強的信德，祂的召喚絕對不是為了他自己，而是為了祂創造的世界和建立的教會都需要我們，世界和教會都和天主一樣在等著我們對聖召的回應。
