Fourth Sunday of Advent

Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament
1019 11th Street, Sacramento, CA 95814 * 916-444-3071
God is with us. What a beautiful idea, to believe that if there really is a God, He is not distant, far-off, and unapproachable, but rather present, near, and with us. God is with us.

Today, I suppose, much of our society would first have to believe that there really is a God. Many people today do not profess belief in any God or higher power. There are many reasons for why someone does not believe: life is too difficult, believers are hypocrites, the focus on one’s self, etc. Clearly, if God were with us, wouldn’t we all believe? Even believers have trouble with their faith at times.

However, if God were really with us in the manner we understand “with us,” we would cease to live our lives on any level that is human. “God with us” would overpower us. Our full attention and appetite and desire would be and could be only on God. Our humanity would be swallowed up in God’s divinity and “God with us” would actually destroy us. That is not what God wants and it is not what most of us want (yet).

So, “God with us” is much more subtle. His presence is silent, motionless, and often undetectable by our limited human senses. God Who Is with Us leaves room for questions and arguments and even doubt. What a beautiful God this is, longing to reveal that He is with us yet limiting His limitlessness so that we are not dissolved in His greatness.

Some might ask “what good is a ‘God with us’ if this God can never really reveal himself?” Yet, of course, this God does reveal Himself in the gentle touching of our hearts and consciences. Prayer and silence help us to be in tune with this presence. He reveals Himself in the beautiful example of the saintly lives of believers (and some non-believers). He reveals himself through fantastic apparitions and miracles which often seem too extraordinary to believe. He reveals himself through the sacraments which nurture us but never over-power us. He reveals Himself in the Incarnation of Jesus who could have dissolved humanity in His greatness, but rather caressed our lives with a human touch.

This is “God is with us;” a necessary silent lover who knows His love is too great for His beloved, so He is simply with us. He sees us. He hears us. He walks with us. He’s right here, with us.

Fr. Michael.
History of Christmas Trees

Long before the advent of Christianity, plants and trees that remained green all year had a special meaning for people in the winter. Just as people today decorate their homes during the festive season with pine, spruce, and fir trees, ancient peoples hung evergreen boughs over their doors and windows. In many countries it was believed that evergreens would keep away witches, ghosts, evil spirits, and illness.

Germany is credited with starting the Christmas tree tradition as we now know it in the 16th century when devout Christians brought decorated trees into their homes. Some built Christmas pyramids of wood and decorated them with evergreens and candles if wood was scarce. It is a widely held belief that Martin Luther, the 16th-century Protestant reformer, first added lighted candles to a tree. Walking toward his home one winter evening, composing a sermon, he was awed by the brilliance of stars twinkling amidst evergreens. To recapture the scene for his family, he erected a tree in the main room and wired its branches with lighted candles.

Most 19th-century Americans found Christmas trees an oddity. The first record of one being on display was in the 1830s by the German settlers of Pennsylvania, although trees had been a tradition in many German homes much earlier. The Pennsylvania German settlements had community trees as early as 1747. But, as late as the 1840s Christmas trees were seen as pagan symbols and not accepted by most Americans.

It is not surprising that, like many other festive Christmas customs, the tree was adopted so late in America. To the New England Puritans, Christmas was sacred. The pilgrims’ second governor, William Bradford, wrote that he tried hard to stamp out “pagan mockery” of the observance, penalizing any frivolity. The influential Oliver Cromwell preached against “the heathen traditions” of Christmas carols, decorated trees, and any joyful expression that desecrated “that sacred event.” In 1659, the General Court of Massachusetts enacted a law making any observance of December 25 (other than a church service) a penal offense; people were fined for hanging decorations. That stern solemnity continued until the 19th century, when the influx of German and Irish immigrants undermined the Puritan legacy.

In 1846, the popular royals, Queen Victoria and her German Prince, Albert, were sketched in the Illustrated London News standing with their children around a Christmas tree. Unlike the previous royal family, Victoria was very popular with her subjects, and what was done at court immediately became fashionable—not only in Britain, but with fashion-conscious East Coast American Society. The Christmas tree had arrived.

By the 1890s Christmas ornaments were arriving from Germany and Christmas tree popularity was on the rise around the U.S. It was noted that Europeans used small trees about four feet in height, while Americans liked their Christmas trees to reach from floor to ceiling.

The early 20th century saw Americans decorating their trees mainly with homemade ornaments, while the German-American sect continued to use apples, nuts, and marzipan cookies. Popcorn joined in after being dyed bright colors and interlaced with berries and nuts. Electricity brought about Christmas lights, making it possible for Christmas trees to glow for days on end. With this, Christmas trees began to appear in town squares across the country and having a Christmas tree in the home became an American tradition. (history.com/editors)

And the angel said to them, “Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good news of a great joy which will come to all the people; for to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.

Everyday Stewardship
Afraid, Yet Never Alone

I did not end up being the great parent I had hoped I would be. I am not saying I was bad, but I was not the cool dad who did all things right and led my children by the example of my endlessly good actions. I messed up a bunch. Sometimes I was afraid. I was afraid of decisions I had to make and the possible repercussions. At times, I was afraid that I was not strong enough to lead my family. The fear occasionally led me toward inaction or eventual mistakes. The only thing that got me through the tough times and allowed me to see it was okay was Jesus. Without Jesus, I would never have been half of the father and husband I have been through the years.

When we try to tackle life alone, we can find ourselves in a very lonely position. Just like Jesus’ parents, we need God to assist us and provide us with the strength for what lies ahead. Joseph needed God to be with him as he took Mary as his wife and became a father. Every parent needs God to become more than they can be on their own.

How do you treat those who you love? Who is there to help you when a relationship faces an obstacle? We are called to love others as our Father in heaven loves us. That is really an unreachable goal. Yet with God, all things are possible. As this Advent ends, may your Christmas be about more than presents and decorations. May the most profound gifts you give and receive be that of each other, and may your lives be decorated with the fruits of that love.

Question: I can’t explain it. I feel a nudge from God to something out of the ordinary. How do I respond?

Answer:
You’re in good company! Abraham was asked to leave all he knew and loved for a strange land, with only abstract divine assurance that such a sacrifice would be worth it. Plenty of prophets protested against God’s call, whether it was claiming they were too young (Jeremiah) or running away entirely, only to end up in a whale’s belly (Jonah). St. Joseph was asked to do something very strange. He was asked to believe — on the word of an angelic appearance in a dream — that his betrothed was pregnant not from another man, but by a miraculous intervention of God. Then he was called to marry her.

Author Flannery O’Connor once wrote, “You shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you odd.” Sometimes God’s invitation might seem strange or challenging. It might require sacrifices we never expected to make. Our life might look different than we had always imagined. But as we all know, life throws its own curveballs, regardless of whether or not we’re listening for God’s will. Better, one would think, to be open to the promptings of God and to follow along the strange trails that they lead. We have the assurance that, eventually, we will find green pastures.
The FESTIVAL OF TREES ministry leaders wish to thank the parish, ministries, and many volunteers, for making the 12th Annual Festival of Trees a huge success. The festival made approximately $20,000 this year, bringing our 13 year total to over $275,000. This makes it possible for the parish to continue to provide food, lunches, and assistance to the downtown homeless and needy. Donations are still being accepted and a final total amount raised will be given at a later date.

Help decorate the Cathedral with beautiful flowers for Christmas. We will be taking donations of potted POINSETTIAS on December 22nd, in Mary’s Chapel. To make other arrangements, contact cathedral-sacramento@gmail.com.

Sharing the Gospel - God brought Jesus into the world as a tiny baby. Jesus was God’s Son. He was so powerful that he could have gotten anything he wanted. But Jesus did not come to earth to be a rich, selfish ruler. He did not need a palace or fancy clothes. Jesus came to show you that God is with you all the time. He was born to be the king over your life. He gave up his own life to rescue you from your sins, so that you could be close to God forever.

Prayer - Dear God, thank you for sending Jesus to rescue me.

Mission for the Week - Tonight, after dinner, ask your family to light some candles, turn off the lights, and sing some of your favorite Christmas songs about Jesus.

"Y lo llamarán Emmanuel. Dios está con nosotros."

Dios esta con nosotros. Qué hermosa idea, creer que si realmente hay un Dios, Él no es distante, distante e inaccesible, sino más bien presente, cercano y con nosotros. Dios esta con nosotros.

Hoy, supongo, gran parte de nuestra sociedad primero tendría que creer que realmente hay un Dios. Muchas personas hoy no profesan creer en ningún Dios o poder superior. Hay muchas razones por las cuales alguien no cree: la vida es demasiado difícil, los creyentes son hipócritas, se enfocan en uno mismo, etc. Claramente, si Dios estuviera con nosotros, ¿no creeríamos todos? Incluso los creyentes tienen problemas con su fe a veces.

Sin embargo, si Dios estuviera realmente con nosotros de la manera en que entendemos "con nosotros", dejaríamos de vivir nuestras vidas en cualquier nivel que sea humano. "Dios con nosotros" nos dominaría. Toda nuestra atención, apetito y deseo estarían y podrían estar solo en Dios. Nuestra humanidad sería tragada por la divinidad de Dios y "Dios con nosotros" en realidad nos destruiría. Eso no es lo que Dios quiere y no es lo que la mayoría de nosotros queremos (todavía).

Entonces, "Dios con nosotros" es mucho más sutil. Su presencia es silenciosa, inmóvil, y a menudo indetectable por nuestros limitados sentidos humanos. Dios que está con nosotros deja espacio para preguntas y argumentos e incluso dudas. Qué Dios tan hermoso es este, deseando revelar que Él está con nosotros, pero que limita Su ilimitud para que no seamos disueltos en Su grandeza.

Algunos podrían preguntarse "¿de qué sirve un" Dios con nosotros "si este Dios realmente nunca puede revelarse a sí mismo?" Sin embargo, por supuesto, este Dios se revela a sí mismo en el toque gentil de nuestros corazones y conciencias. La oración y el silencio nos ayudan a estar en sintonía con esta presencia. Se revela en el hermoso ejemplo de la vida santa de los creyentes (y de algunos no creyentes). Se revela a través de fantásticas apariciones y milagros que a menudo parecen demasiado extraordinarios para creer. Se revela a través de los sacramentos que nos nutren pero que nunca nos dominan. Se revela en la Encarnación de Jesús que pudo haber disuelto a la humanidad en Su grandeza, pero que más bien acarició nuestras vidas con un toque humano.

 Esto es "Dios está con nosotros"; un amante silencioso necesario que sabe que su amor es demasiado grande para su amada, por lo que simplemente está con nosotros. El nos ve. El nos escucha. El camina con nosotros. Él está aquí, con nosotros.

Pr. Michael.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA
Temeroso, pero nunca solo

No terminé siendo el gran padre que esperaba que fuera. No digo que fui malo, pero no fui el padre genial que hizo todo bien y guile a mis hijos con el ejemplo de mis acciones infinitamente buenas. Me equivoqué un montón. A veces tenía miedo. Tenía miedo de las decisiones que tenía que tomar y las posibles repercusiones. A veces, temía no ser lo suficientemente fuerte como para dirigir a mi familia. El miedo, ocasionalmente, me llevó a la inacción o eventuales errores. Lo único que me ayudó a superar los temores difíciles y me permitió ver que todo estaba bien fue Jesús. Sin Jesús, nunca hubiera sido la mitad del padre y esposo que he sido a través de los años.

Cuando tratamos de enfrentarnos a la vida solos, podemos encontrarnos en una posición muy solitaria. Al igual que los padres de Jesús, necesitamos que Dios nos ayude y nos brinde la fuerza para lo que nos espera. José necesitaba que Dios estuviera con él cuando tomó a María como su esposa y se convirtió en padre. Cada padre necesita a Dios para poder ser más de lo que puede por sí solo.

¿Cómo tratas a los que amas? ¿Quién está allí para ayudarte cuando una relación enfrenta un obstáculo? Estamos llamados a amar a los demás como nuestro Padre que está en los cielos nos ama. Esa es realmente una meta inalcanzable. Sin embargo, con Dios, todas las cosas son posibles. A medida que se termina el Adviento, que tu Navidad sea más que regalos y decoraciones. Que los regalos más profundos que den y reciban sean los unos a los otros, y que sus vidas estén decoradas con los frutos de ese amor.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

VIVIR LA LITURGIA
¿Alguna vez le has pedido a Dios una señal? ¿Qué esperabas ver? Las señales validan nuestra experiencia y nos dan seguridad y dirección. Tenemos que equilibrar las señales de Dios con eventos milagrosos y maravillosos. Incluso a veces buscamos pequeños gestos como signos de que Dios está confirmando una experiencia particular o una elección que estamos haciendo. Estar demasiado preocupado por recibir este tipo de signos de Dios a menudo puede indicar una falta de fe. ¿Hay algo que pueda convencernos de que Dios es real y que está con nosotros en nuestro viaje? Sí. Ya se ha dado la señal de Dios: la virgen concebirá y dará a luz un hijo y lo llamará Emmanuel. Emmanuel, Dios con nosotros, es la señal más perfecta de Dios y la única que necesitamos. Nuestro Dios encarnado es todo lo que necesitamos para enderezarnos y validar nuestra experiencia. Solo Jesús puede dirigirnos al Padre, a nosotros mismos, a los demás y a nuestro mundo. Cuando nuestras vidas se conforman a la suya, no se necesita nada más.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO

El cuarto Domingo de Adviento prácticamente nos pone ya a las puertas de la Navidad, estamos listos o no. En unos días, celebraremos el nacimiento de nuestro Salvador. La figura importante en este domingo es María que ha concebido por obra del Espíritu Santo y pone al mundo al Emmanuel, Dios-con-nosotros. El Evangelio nos narra la duda de José, disipada por el ángel que Dios envía a él en sueños. “José, hijo de David, no dudes en recibir en tu casa a María, tu esposa, porque ella ha concebido por obra del Espíritu Santo. Dará a luz un hijo y tú le pondrás el nombre de Jesús, porque el salvará a su pueblo de sus pecados.” ¿Cuántas dudas existen aún en la sociedad sobre el Nacimiento del Mesías? “En Navidad Dios se nos dona todo donando a su Hijo, el Único, que es toda su alegría. Y sólo con el corazón de María, la humilde y pobre hija de Sión, convertida en Madre del Hijo del Altísimo, es posible exultar y alegrarse por el gran don de Dios y por su inapreciable sorpresa. Que Ella nos ayude a percibir el asombro —estos tres asombros: el otro, la historia y la Iglesia— por el nacimiento de Jesús, el don de los dones, el regalo inmerecido que nos trae la salvación. El encuentro con Jesús nos hará también sentir a nosotros este gran asombro. Pero no podemos tener este asombro, no podemos encontrar a Jesús, si no lo encontramos en los demás, en la historia y en la Iglesia.” (Papa Francisco).

MARRIAGE PREPARATION - The Diocese of Sacramento requires an engaged couple to complete a marriage preparation program no later than two months before their wedding date. Contact: Deacon Omar & Janet Bardales at matrimonyprep@att.net, or 916-427-9160. You do not have to have your wedding at the Cathedral to take this class.

CONVALIDATION - If you would like to have your civil marriage blessed in the Catholic Church, or if you have been together for a number of years and would like to be married in the Church, this can often be done in a small, private ceremony called a Convalidation, without any cost or fee. To explore this possibility, contact Deacon John at 444-3071 Ext. 11 or jgisla@cathedralsacramento.org.

WEDDINGS - If you would like to celebrate the Sacrament of Matrimony at the Cathedral, contact Wedding Coordinator, Titi Kila at tkila@cathedralsacramento.org at least six months before your desired wedding date to arrange a meeting.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAMS
The cathedral offers a complete faith formation program, including Catholic Faith Formation, Confirmation, The Rite of Christian Initiation Program, R.C.I.A., for adults, teens and children, Religious Education for Spanish Speaking Adults, and a Catechesis Formation Program.

If you’ve been coming to Mass for a while, but are not Catholic, or were baptized Catholic but never completed your faith formation classes, we invite you to look deeper into the Catholic faith. Come meet some faithful Catholics who love the Lord and would consider it a privilege to get to know you. We invite you to learn what Catholics believe in an open and welcoming environment. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) sessions meet every Monday Evening at 7 PM in the lower level of the Cathedral. Feel free to come any Monday evening. For more information on all of our faith formation programs, please call 916-444-5364 or email Sister Lisa Marie Doty, Director of Religious Education, lmdoty@cathedralsacramento.org.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Afraid, Yet Never Alone

I did not end up being the great parent I had hoped I would be. I am not saying I was bad, but I was not the cool dad who did all things right and led my children by the example of my endlessly good actions. I messed up a bunch. Sometimes I was afraid. I was afraid of decisions I had to make and the possible repercussions. At times, I was afraid that I was not strong enough to lead my family. The fear occasionally led me toward inaction or eventual mistakes. The only thing that got me through the tough times and allowed me to see it was okay was Jesus. Without Jesus, I would never have been half of the father and husband I have been through the years. When we try to tackle life alone, we can find ourselves in a very lonely position. Just like Jesus’ parents, we need God to assist us and provide us with the strength for what lies ahead. Joseph needed God to be with him as he took Mary as his wife and became a father. Every parent needs God to become more than they can be on their own. How do you treat those who you love? Who is there to help you when a relationship faces an obstacle? We are called to love others as our Father in heaven loves us. That is really an unreachable goal. Yet with God, all things are possible. As this Advent ends, may your Christmas be about more than presents and decorations. May the most profound gifts you give and receive be that of each other, and may your lives be decorated with the fruits of that love.
