This past Saturday, as is the tradition every Second Saturday of September, The Cathedral Young Adults (CYA) hosted NightFever (NF). This time of prayer, music, and fellowship draws all people, Catholics and non-Catholics alike, to have a unique encounter with Jesus. Illuminated by candles of various shapes and sizes, the candlelight (symbolizing our prayers), shined brightly drawing our attention to the altar where Christ was present in the Blessed Sacrament. An unusual NF during COVID-19, we were only able to offer this event via livestream on our social media platforms. Providentially, we, the CYA, for the first time, were finally able as a group, to envelop ourselves in this experience, which has touched the hearts of many... an experience that we only read about in reflections and comments. Words cannot express the humility, emotion, and sense of surrender displayed that night as we were captivated by this night of adoration. For me personally, I was somewhat fearful of what that night would bring about in me. It was an opportunity to recognize my frailness in the hope of reaffirming my relationship with Christ. Listening to the music, reflecting on the scripture passages proclaimed, and presenting myself before the Blessed Sacrament was a moment of grace and one in which time stopped. All I can say is, for those who have not attended a NF, I highly encourage you to come. Stay tuned for more info regarding NF Spring 2021!

WATER FOR ALL The BBL Ministry & Cathedral Young Adults Feeding team are having a WATER DRIVE during September. Please help by donating cases of water for our unhoused friends. Collections will take place on Sundays before & after the outdoor Masses starting. Thank you!
So many changes are going on these days, yet we still need to try and maintain some normalcy in our lives. This Sunday is Catechetical Sunday and here at the Cathedral we know how important it is to continue to provide education to our children and adults. Obviously, this year’s religious education program looks different both in its delivery as well as its content. Today, we really are realizing that parents are the first educators of their child’s faith. As we grow in understanding, we accept that as adults, we ourselves are the catechists of our faith.

Lately, I’ve had the opportunity to watch various programs involving superheroes. Not all superheroes are actually heroic, but one aspect they have in common is their inability to fit in with the rest of society. In fact, superheroes often appear to be lonely as they try to live their lives amongst every-day humans. Most likely, this is why many take on a more human appearance, finding their non-super lives more rewarding and enjoyable. The humans around them are able to appreciate them more and welcome them more deeply into their lives. When a superhero is simply human, that is when others get to know him or her. Even superheroes want to be known.

This has me wondering about God. How much God wants us to know Him. We could never know Him in His purely God essence, it would be way too much for us. So, God became human so that we could know Him and appreciate Him. Jesus, in many ways, revealed a simple human life. I wonder though, if His superhuman miracles and Godliness created a distance between Him and us. We somehow need to know that Jesus is God, yet once we know, normal human relationships and how we learn about others become much more complex. Divisions and separations begin. We may ask ourselves how close we really are to Jesus? How well do we really know Him? If not too much, then we are probably not too sure how well He knows us. And of course, God, who wants to be One-with-us, is left being alone, (except for the angels and saints).

I see two responses to this catechetical concern of knowing God. One response is to see God in much smaller ways. Many of us do this. We know God is great but we see His presence in small ways. After all, God can make Himself known in the simplest objects and events. This is helpful to prevent us from feeling unconnected to Him, like He is some superhero who cannot relate to us, or is only present to save us. The other response is to raise ourselves up to a higher level and believe the scriptures that we are created in God’s image and that their is no separation between us. We can live as the Body of Christ because we truly are His body. Both these responses to knowing God are important and necessary. They are also life-long responses as is true of all relationships in which we struggle to know and understand and love others. All catechesis must lead us to this simple lesson, that we know God and God knows us. The more we understand how united we are with God, the more we realize how unnecessary superheroes are.

Fr. Michael

What does the Church mean when it speaks of TIME—TALENT—TREASURE?
In their Pastoral Letter on Stewardship, a Disciple’s Response, the U.S. Bishops state: “The Christian steward is one who receives God's gifts gratefully, cherishes and tends them in a responsible and accountable manner, shares them in justice and love with others, and returns them with increase to the Lord.” In the coming weeks we will be featuring the seven principles of Catholic Social Teaching to help us understand how we are called to use our the whole of our lives in building up the kingdom of God. This will help us appreciate the reason behind seasonal collections as highlighted on page 3.
Se están produciendo tantos cambios en estos días, pero todavía tenemos que intentar mantener algo de normalidad en nuestras vidas. Este domingo es domingo de catequesis y aquí en la Catedral sabemos lo importante que es seguir brindando educación a nuestros niños y adultos. Obviamente, el programa de educación religiosa se ve diferente tanto en su ejecución como en su contenido. Hoy, realmente nos estamos dando cuenta de que los padres son los primeros educadores de la fe de su hijo. A medida que crecemos en comprensión, lo aceptamos como adultos, nosotros mismos somos los catequistas de nuestra fe.

Últimamente, he tenido la oportunidad de ver varios programas que involucran superhéroes. No todos los superhéroes son realmente heroicos, pero un aspecto que tienen en común es su incapacidad para encajar con el resto de la sociedad. De hecho, los superhéroes a menudo parecen estar solos mientras intentan vivir sus vidas entre los humanos de todos los días. Probablemente, esta es la razón por la que muchos adoptan un modelo de apariencia, encontrando sus no-súper vidas más gratificantes y agradables. Los humanos que los rodean son capaces de apreciarlos más y darles la bienvenida más profundamente en sus vidas. Cuando un superhéroe es simplemente humano, es cuando otros llegan a conocerlo. Incluso los superhéroes quieren ser conocidos.

Esto me hace pensar en Dios. Cuánto quiere Dios que lo conozcamos. Podríamos nunca conocerlo en su esencia puramente divina, sería demasiado para nosotros. Entonces, Dios se hizo humano para que pudiéramos conocerlo y apreciarlo. Jesús, de muchas maneras, reveló una vida humana simple. Sin embargo, me pregunto si sus milagros superhumanos y la piedad crearon una distancia entre Él y nosotros. Nosotros de alguna manera necesitamos saber que Jesús es Dios, pero una vez que sabemos, las relaciones humanas normales y cómo aprendemos sobre los demás se vuelve mucho más complejo. Las divisiones y las separaciones comienzan. Podemos preguntarnos qué tan cerca estamos realmente de Jesús. ¿Qué tan bien lo conocemos realmente? Si no es demasiado, probablemente no estamos seguros de lo bien que Él nos conoce. Y por supuesto, Dios, que quiere ser Uno con nosotros, se queda solo (a excepción de los ángeles y los santos).

Ve do dos respuestas a esta preocupación catequética de conocer a Dios. Una respuesta es ver a Dios de formas mucho más pequeñas. Muchos de nosotros hacemos esto. Sabemos que Dios es grandioso pero vemos su presencia en pequeñas formas. Después de todo, Dios puede darse a conocer así mismo en los objetos y eventos más simples. Esto es útil para prevenir de sentirnos desconectados de Él, como si fuera un superhéroe que no puede relacionarse con nosotros, o solo está presente para salvarnos. La otra respuesta es levantarnos nosotros mismos a un nivel superior y creer en las escrituras que somos creados a imagen y semejanza de Dios y que no hay separación entre nosotros. Podemos vivir como el Cuerpo de Cristo porque verdaderamente somos Su cuerpo. Ambas respuestas para conocer a Dios son importantes y necesarias. Éstas son también respuestas para toda la vida, así como son verdaderas todas las relaciones en las que luchamos por conocer, comprender y amar a los demás. Toda catequesis debe llevarnos a esta lección simple, que conocemos a Dios y él a nosotros. Cuanto más entendemos cómo estamos unidos con Dios, más nos damos cuenta de lo innecesario que son los superhéroes.

FAITH FORMATION & EDUCATION

IS MY CHILD READY TO RECEIVE THE SACRAMENTS IN 2021 (#3)?

Last week we reflected on the first three Commandments of God that teach us how to “Love the Lord our God with all of our heart, mind, soul and strength.” We will continue with our reflection, this week looking at our call to Love our Neighbor as ourselves as instructed in the last seven of God’s Commandments.

How is my family living / following the 10 Commandments as found in Deuteronomy 5:6-21?

(the Ten Commandments are a description of the basic freedom from sin that is necessary to live as a Christian. They are a minimum level of living, below which we must not go):

For Love of Neighbor
4. Honor your father and your mother.
5. You shall not kill.
6. You shall not commit adultery.
7. You shall not steal.
8. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
9. You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife.
10. You shall not covet your neighbor’s goods.

For Love for Others and Self
⇒ Listen to our parents and those who take care of us, do as they say.
⇒ Be thankful for, and take care of those things that we have.
⇒ Always be fair in everything that we say and do.
⇒ Always tell the truth! Lying always hurts somebody.
⇒ Never take anything that is not ours.
⇒ Always treat others with respect, because God created them, like he created you, for a purpose! Everyone is special and should be loved.

DIVINE MERCY SUMMIT

Divine Mercy experts on October 3-5, 2020, the Feast Day of St. Faustina, for the greatest Divine Mercy event ever—the first virtual Divine Mercy Summit.

www.divinemercysummit.com
Today the Church celebrates Catechetical Sunday and we are called to reflect on the theme “I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you.” On this day, catechists are commissioned for ministry to the community. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each baptized person plays in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.

The Cathedral is blessed with a wonderful evangelizers who weekly sacrifice their time, talent and treasure in bringing the faith to those entrusted to our care in many spheres: Adult Catechesis in the Confirmation and RCIA for Adults/Children, Bible Study, prayer groups, parent formation, and programs of preparation for the sacraments of marriage and baptism. Children too are formed in faith through our faith formation and sacramental preparation programs. Please join me and Fr. Michael in telling our catechists THANK YOU for all of the sacrifices you make in order to make Jesus known and loved to the people of the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament. Please consider too how you can join us in our continuing efforts to bring faith to our families in this new catechetical year. May God bless you all!

We want to honor our catechists this year by quoting from our Children currently in Retreat for First Holy Communion, through whom we see the fruit of our catechists.

How does God speak with us?

Through are hearts, Bible, other people, and a lot more. Cecilia C

He speaks to us in the Scriptures, through other people, through our talents, our deep desires for good things, through our conscious, and in our hearts. Sabina

Where can we find Jesus?

In heaven. In the Eucharist. Mauricio R-P

In our hearts. Samuel F.

What are the four parts of the Mass?

There is the introductory rite, the liturgy of the word, liturgy of the Eucharist and the farewell rite. Tristan

What is the most important part of the Mass and Why?

The most important part of the Mass is the consecration. It is the most important because it’s the moment the bread and wine become the blood and body of Jesus. That is why we kneel. Larissa R-G.

Why do we give thanks to God?

We give thanks to God because he gave us family and friends and everything. Kadhmiel

What is the Creed?

It is a summary of the core beliefs of the Catholic Church. Teresa M

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Be Sure to Look the Part

I used to coach my oldest son in soccer when he was younger. As he got older, he would go to tryouts for select and high school teams. I was no longer the coach, but I always shared with him one piece of advice before any tryout: Be sure to look the part. I told him that if he showed up looking like a soccer player, there was an increased chance of him being seen as a soccer player. If he showed up looking like a kid that plays soccer in video games as opposed to the real thing, he might not be taken seriously. As he grew older, that same advice was then applied to getting a job. It’s advice I have heeded myself all my life. You can even say it is like another common phrase: “Fake it till you make it.”

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we certainly do not want to fake it, but we do need to look the part. The world looks at those of us who proclaim to be Christians to see if there is anything to this way of life. If they see us looking and acting like people transformed by Jesus Christ, they will be more likely to take Christianity seriously. If they look at us and see nothing different, then they can easily conclude that there is nothing different about Jesus Christ. He just becomes simply another religious figure of history. Can the world see the power of Christ in you? How will you look the part?
