Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This is really our celebration here at the Cathedral since we are the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament. Today we appreciate in a special way the great gift of the Eucharist in our lives. We process through the streets and reveal to the world the beauty of our God who gives us life. For Catholics, it’s pretty basic stuff, even if the concept, bread and wine being changed into the Body and Blood of Christ, is difficult to fully comprehend. For the world, this gift is hardly understood and, even for many Catholics, our belief in this miracle is often weak and uninspiring. We created humans still hold onto the myth that unless it comes from our power, it can’t be real or true. Fortunately for us, God’s presence doesn’t depend on us or our half-hearted faith. The gift of His Body and Blood offered to us is as true and real as ever, whether we accept that gift or not.

Today we also welcome back those women who have been on the Cathedral ACTS retreat since Thursday. We pray that they have also had a deep experience of the Body and Blood of Christ. They may not realize that there witness to discerning God’s presence in their lives is an important part of the growth of the entire Church. Please welcome these sisters back with a warm embrace.

Finally, we must always see the connection of this Solemnity in relation to our own calling as the Church, the Body of Christ. Everything we celebrate at Mass, God’s love, God’s healing, God’s reconciliation, God’s peace, is meant to be reflected in His Body, us. The challenge for us worshippers is to always move from selfish reasons in wanting to know God to self-giving ones. So many of us still approach God and faith with a “what’s in it for me” attitude, when the message of Jesus is always the opposite. We pray that today we might truly believe that in order to receive the greatness of this gift we offer ourselves as the Body and Blood of Christ for others.

Father Michael

With Gratitude and Thanks

The Cathedral Brown Bag Lunch Ministry (BBL) has been blessed to provide tens of thousands of lunches to our downtown homeless brothers and sisters over the past five years. This would not have been possible if not for our BBL volunteers and you, our fellow parishioners.

Your generous donations of food, financial contributions and support mean more to the BBL than words can express. We appreciate all that you have done, and continue to do, for the BBL and pray that you will accept this note of thanks as a token of our sincere gratitude for your kindness.

Many blessings to you and your families!

“If you can’t feed a hundred people, then feed just one.” ~Mother Teresa~
This June, let’s spread the image of Christ’s love
Tom Hoopes | Aleteia.org

Let’s bless the internet by spreading the image of the Sacred Heart far and wide.

A friend of mine had a great idea: We should all post pictures of the Sacred Heart online this June.

After all, "I will bless every place in which an image of my heart is exposed and honored,” Jesus promised St. Margaret Mary Alacoque.

"Every place.”

Might the internet itself be blessed if we share more images of his heart, exposed and honored?

Recent popes (and Mother Teresa) called the Sacred Heart the expression of faith for precisely our times.

The same year Aldous Huxley’s A Brave New World was published, Pope Pius XI called the Sacred heart “the extraordinary remedy for the extraordinary needs of our times.”

The year after Steve Jobs, Bill Gates and Kris Jenner were born, Pius XII said, “Devotion to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus is so important” that it should not be “set aside as inferior to others,” Pope Paul VI called the Sacred Heart devotion “the most efficacious means to contribute to that spiritual and moral renewal of the world called for by the Second Vatican Council.”

A broken, hungry, lost world needs the Sacred Heart more than ever.

"Do not let the past disturb you, just leave everything in the Sacred Heart and begin again with joy,” said Mother Teresa.

Pope Francis stressed, “The month of June is traditionally dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, the greatest human expression of divine love ... the ultimate symbol of God’s mercy.”

After all, a picture is worth a 1,000 words.

I have heard many stories from people who either disliked or were perplexed by the Sacred Heart for years but who ended up being changed, moved, and improved, by the image — precisely because it is so odd, perhaps.

We are often evangelized without words. The crucifix shows us God’s love for humanity better than a great homily. The Madonna and child tell us more than books on Christology and Mariology. The Sacred Heart tells a story, too.

First, it tells us, in this technological age, that God is not just cosmic intelligence but that, in Jesus, he has a heart.

Second, the burning, wounded heart of the God man tells us that holiness only comes through suffering.

Third, when God offers his heart, he is inviting us to offer ours, as well.

Fourth, by showing us a vision of what sin looks like in eternity — the wounded heart of God — it invites us to make reparation.

The internet needs the Sacred Heart because it needs much better images of love.

Too often, the images of love we see online are either sexually suggestive on the one hand, or sentimental and silly on the other. They unconsciously teach us that love is about us, delivering either sexual or emotional titillation.

Think of the Sacred Heart as God’s own corrective. It is as naked as it can be, but it goes deep underneath the surface, to show who Jesus is. And it improves two popular emojis: Think of the wounded heart as a “real love” emoji and its flaming cross a “true passion” emoji.

The Sacred Heart is also the ultimate display of an unabashed Catholic identity.

Human beings need to wear uniforms and fly flags.

It isn’t enough for us to like a sports team, we need the T-shirt. We love being Americans, but we thrill to the idea when we see stars and stripes. And more of us go to Mass on Ash Wednesday, which isn’t a holy day of obligation, than on the Immaculate Conception, which is.

We can overdo displays of our identity, obviously. We can substitute the external sign for the internal reality, or we can make our faith showy and off-putting.

Some of us do that. But I think more of us do the opposite: We downplay who we are because either we fear offending people (which might just mean we are personally a little ashamed) or because we consider our religion to be merely private.

Celebrating the Sacred Heart online is a good balance between the two, I think. On the one hand, it is the most generic of Christian messages imaginable: “Jesus loves you.” On the other hand, it is the most radical Catholic image we have: A human heart circled with thorns.

It’s hard to embrace it unless you mean it, and your identity is unmistakable if you show it.

So, let’s bless the internet by spreading the image of the Sacred Heart far and wide.

This June, be proud of your faith and celebrate God’s love, which always wins the day.
Oppose Bill SB360 Targeting "Seal of Confession"

From Bishop Soto: "The State Legislature is attempting to limit the freedom of Catholic laity to approach with confidence the Sacrament of Penance. The government has no understanding what the sacrament means for Catholics. The priest's duty to protect the seal of the confession is for the benefit of the penitent. Urge your State Senator to vote 'no' on SB 360 to protect the seal of confession." Go to crcengage.com/cacatholic to send a message to your state legislator, or scd.org for more information.

Cinema Divina presents:

"LILIES OF THE FIELD"

June 28, 2019 ~ 6:00 pm in Mercy Hall

Cinema Divina opens their summer movie night series with "Lilies of the Field," starring Sidney Poitier in his Academy Award winning performance as traveling African-American handyman Homer Smith, when he stops by a farm in rural Arizona and is welcomed by a group of Roman Catholic nuns who have emigrated from Germany. Realizing that the farm needs a lot of work, Homer takes on a number of repair projects for the women, who are led by the headstrong Mother Maria (Lilia Skala).

Hosted by Fr. Michael Kiernan – guest for the week of June 23 is Fr. Steve Avella and June 30 is Christine Watkins! You'll find all 56 previous episodes on YouTube or view on Comcast channel 20, Consolidated 19 and AT&T 14. Times: Sun. 7:30 AM, Tues. 9:30 AM, Weds. 8:30 PM, and Thurs. 5:00 PM

From Sr. Libby Fernandez, RSM, Director, Mercy Pedalers:

Just a year and a half since we launched Mercy Pedalers, I am proud to say that we are over 75 pedalers strong and counting! This means that we are able to bring more refreshment, comfort and kindness to people living on the streets in Sacramento.

I’m writing today because I need your help. With more pedalers, we need more supplies than ever. As the scorching summer heat approaches, the needs of our homeless brothers and sisters have never been greater. We will need to purchase bottled water, nutrition bars, first aid items and more to help meet the basic needs of the families, men and women without a place to live.

Will you make a generous gift today to help us fill our bike bags with survival essentials this summer?

Your compassionate generosity will help us offer warmth and kindness to those most in need and break down barriers that prevent them from accessing resources to make it off the streets. Every gift is truly appreciated. You are making a difference! Please make your check payable to Mercy Pedalers at Mercy Foundation: 3400 Data Dr., Rancho Cordova, CA 95670

Con gratitud y gracias.

El Ministerio de Almuerzos de Cathedral Brown Bag (BBL) ha sido bendecido al proporcionar decenas de miles de almuerzos a nuestros hermanos y hermanas sin hogar en el centro de la ciudad durante los últimos cinco años. Esto no hubiera sido posible si no fuera por nuestros voluntarios de BBL y usted, nuestros feligreses feligreses. Sus generosas donaciones de alimentos, contribuciones financieras y apoyo significan más para la BBL de lo que las palabras pueden expresar. Apreciamos todo lo que ha hecho y continuamos haciendo por la BBL y oramos para que acepte esta nota de agradecimiento como una muestra de nuestra sincera gratitud por su amabilidad.

¡Muchas bendiciones para ti y tus familias!

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICA

Nos dice el Evangelio: "Hagan sentar a la gente en grupos de cincuenta". Así lo hicieron los discípulos, y todos se sentaron. "Jesús entonces tomó los cinco panes y los dos pescados, levantó los ojos al cielo, pronunció la bendición, los partió y se los entregó a sus discípulos para que los distribuyeran a la gente. Todos comieron hasta saciarse. Después se recogieron los pedazos que habían sobrado, y llenaron doce canastos". (Lucas 9:15-17). Esta es una hermosa historia que debe ser contada una y otra vez de generación en generación, como una gran nueva de liberación y sanación para toda la humanidad. Hablar del Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo trae consigo un gran responsabilidad de agradecimiento y renovación. Nadie que toma el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo en la Eucaristía puede seguir siendo la misma persona.

¿Quién podría seguir viviendo de la misma manera si acude a la Eucaristía? Comulgar exige cambios, retos y compromisos; compromisos de apoyo y solidaridad para los que tienen hambre, para los que no tienen voz. Sobretodo, un cristiano seguidor de Jesucristo debe de aprender a ser feliz, a sonreír y tener esperanza en un mundo mejor. Su lema diario debe ser justicia, perdón y amor. La Eucaristía lleva todo esto y aun va más allá; compromiso de ser otro Cristo para los demás. En el Evangelio, Jesús es muy generoso, da de comer hasta saciarse, ofrece el Reino de Dios y muestra una forma nueva de vivir. Ojalá que el pan compartido en cada Eucaristía sirva para que cese la violencia en nuestras fronteras, ya sean físicas o fronteras del corazón.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

¿Cómo podemos tener éxito enamar verdaderamente a Dios y al prójimo y abrazar completamente la vida del Evangelio? Lograr esta meta sin una conexión íntima con Cristo, es imposible. La Eucaristía, el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo, nos conecta con Dios de una manera única e íntima. Su propia vida y presencia está desposada con la nuestra. Al ser perdonados y alimentados, se nos da la fuerza y la convicción para retomar nuestras vidas heridas y rotas y ser heraldos vivos de Buenas Nuevas. Nuestro mundo está roto y necesita testigos auténticos y vivos para devolverlo a la verdad. Alimentado por el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo, ¿estás listo para ser enviado?

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Cuando era niño, recordar haber pasado por mi parroquia u otra iglesia católica local para pasar un tiempo en oración ante El Santísimo. No teníamos mucha exposición y adoración en esos días, pero estábamos muy conscientes de la presencia de Jesús en el tabernáculo. A veces miraba la vela encendida que estaba cerca y sabía que Jesús estaba vivo.

Nunca antes había escuchado a alguien hablar sobre una forma de vida de corresponsabilidad. Si soy honesto, el mensaje principal que escuché en esos días era el siguiente: "Necesitamos ser lo mejor que podamos". El sacrificio se realizaba solo en la Cuaresma, los discípulos eran personas en la Biblia y la generosidad tenia que ver que podamos. El sacrificio se realizaba solo en la Cuaresma, los discípulos eran personas en la Biblia y la generosidad tenía que ver es su mayoría con la cesta de la colecta y la caja de los pobres en la entrada de la iglesia. ¡Incluso fui a escuelas católicas!

CATHEDRAL PARISH STEWARDSHIP
The Cathedral Parish is solely supported by weekly offertories and individual donations. It is a self-sustaining, non-profit organization and does not receive funding from any other sources, including the Sacramento Diocese or any of its parishes.

The Cathedral’s weekly expenses exceed $20,000. To maintain fiscal integrity, the offertory every week needs to cover more than half of the expenses. The Finance Council has set a weekly offertory goal of $11,500.
