Year of ST. JOSEPH
Oh, St. Joseph, whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the throne of God. I place in you all my interests and desires. Oh, St. Joseph, do assist me by your powerful intercession, and obtain for me from your divine Son all spiritual blessings, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. So that, having engaged here below your heavenly power, I may offer my thanksgiving and homage to the most loving of Fathers. Amen

SUNDAYS OF LENT: RESPECT FOR LIFE ROSARY
Please join your fellow Cathedral parishioners in the Cathedral Plaza each Sunday of Lent, to pray a rosary for the intention of an end to legalized abortion and the end of the pandemic. The bilingual service will begin at 11:15 a.m., in between the 10 a.m. English Mass and noon Spanish Mass.

LENT/ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

Sunday, February 21, 2021 | 1st Sunday of Lent | Page 3

WHAT IS LENT?
The 40-day period from Ash Wednesday and before Easter Sunday. It is marked by praying, fasting, abstinence, and other acts of penance.

WHAT IS FASTING?
One meal a day, and two smaller meals which if added together would not exceed one full meal.

WHAT DAYS DO WE FAST?
We fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

WHO IS REQUIRED TO FAST?
Catholics from age 18 to 59. The sick are excused from fasting.

WHAT IS ABSTINENCE?
Abstinence is refraining from eating meat. Meat is considered to be the flesh and organs of mammals and fowl.

WHAT DAYS DO WE ABSTAIN from MEAT?
We abstain from Meat on:
- Ash Wednesday
- All Fridays of Lent, and
- Good Friday

The Journey begins ... see the Faith Formation for opportunities this Lent.

“During this Lent, Let us all ask the Lord: Make our Hearts Like Yours.”
- Pope Francis

Through the Annual Catholic Appeal, the whole Catholic community extends our hand to those who need help. We assist them beyond dire circumstances and to begin again, refreshed and renewed. Join me in making a sacrificial gift this year.

Bishop of Sacramento

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL COMMITMENT WEEKEND

Today we join with all parishes in our Diocese for the 2021 Annual Catholic Appeal. The Annual Catholic Appeal is dedicated solely to the social mission of the Church here in Northern California. Not everyone can walk with people in need. By supporting the work of people who can, the whole Catholic community extends our hand to those who need help.

- Step 1: Prayerfully consider your gift. I encourage everyone to consider an ongoing monthly gift or 10-month pledge. For instance, a commitment of $25 a month provides $250 over a ten-month period. All gifts are important. Please record your gift and do what you can.
- Step 2: Next, complete your information – please clearly print the parish name, your name, address, and phone. (pause) If you prefer not to give your name, it is OK to leave the space blank but please be sure to print our parish name.
- Step 3: Next, fill in your method of payment. If you are giving cash, please place it in the envelope so we can record it as a parish contribution and properly thank you for your generosity.

50% → charities. 25% → parishes. 25% → education

Today is the First Sunday during our season of Lent and we see Jesus in the Gospel reading being led out into the desert for forty days. This forty days is also offered to us as we walk the journey through Lent. Beginning a journey like this, forty days alone in the desert, highlights one particular gift from God; the gift of time. If you’ve ever been on a silent retreat, with no daily distraction like television or internet or even other people, you quickly realize how difficult it is to appreciate the gift of time. Perhaps, for some of us, following our protocols for staying healthy during Covid-19, we experience something of this desert journey. The common reaction is to try to figure how to fill up time. We want to find something to do. When the pandemic first began, we saw how quickly we avoided spending time in the desert, creating all kinds of things to do, demanding not to isolate, responding with activities and videos, and everyone doing their best to avoid going out into the desert. Many felt alone, adrift, or like orphans. As a church we tried to give resources, but in the desert there are no resources. You are alone. That is the point, just you...and the Father.

So now we begin Lent, another opportunity to be lead to the desert alone. Jesus went into the desert so that he could be fully aware of His relationship with the Father. He was lead by the Spirit on a path that would confirm the time to begin His public ministry. This ministry would lead to healings, teachings, miracles, crucifixion and death. Of course he was scared to begin His forty days. He probably had many moments when He wanted to turn around or reason that a five day journey, or even a five hour journey, was good enough. But we know He followed through this journey, moving beyond every desire and hunger, every temptation and doubt, every dangerous encounter, to seek unity with the Father alone. His time in the desert, his forty days of prayer, were a gift from the Father so that Jesus could be strengthened to conquer the even more difficult paths that were awaiting him. This period of time, this prayerful time, was a preparation for His future death and resurrection. Jesus embraces the gift of time without running away from it and discovers that He will never be alone.

As we take our steps on the journey of Lent, we too are being called to walk alone with the Father. We will be tempted to seek out other people or even make no adjustments to our ordinary path. But, if we want to fulfill what the Father wants of us, we need to spend quiet time, prayer time, in preparation for what still lies ahead. The impulse to rush through the journey, or quit, or turn around, or not even begin, will be strong. I offer some simple-to-follow rules right from the start:

- No electronic devices after 8pm.
- Only one alcoholic beverage per week.
- On each day of Lent, reach out to someone you have neglected.
- Read the Bible for 30 minutes every day.

These are just a few simple suggestions to help us stay on the journey. There are many more profound steps we can take to use this gift of time in helping us prepare for what lies ahead. If we embrace Lent as Jesus does, we can be sure that we too will have angels minister to us as we seek union with our Heavenly Father alone.

Fr. Michael
Hoy es el primer domingo de nuestro tiempo de Cuaresma y vemos a Jesús en la lectura del Evangelio siendo llevado al desierto durante cuarenta días. Estos cuarenta días también se nos ofrecen mientras recorremos el viaje a través de la Cuaresma. Comenzar un viaje como este, cuarenta días solo en el desierto, destaca un regalo particular de Dios; el regalo del tiempo. Si alguna vez ha estado en un retiro de silencio, sin distracciones diarias como la televisión o Internet o incluso otras personas, rápidamente se dará cuenta de lo difícil que es apreciar el regalo del tiempo. Quizás, para algunos de nosotros, siguiendo nuestros protocolos para mantenernos saludables durante Covid-19, experimentamos algo de este viaje por el desierto. La reacción común es tratar de averiguar cómo llenar el tiempo. Queremos encontrar algo que hacer. Cuando comenzó la pandemia, vimos lo rápido que evitamos pasar tiempo en el desierto, creando todo tipo de cosas para hacer, exigiendo no aislarnos, respondiendo con actividades y videos, y todos haciendo todo lo posible para evitar salir al desierto. Muchos se sintieron solos, a la deriva o como huérfanos. Como iglesia tratamos de dar recursos, pero en el desierto no hay recursos. Usted está solo. Ese es el punto, solo usted ... y el Padre.

Así que ahora comenzamos la Cuaresma, otra oportunidad para ser llevados solos al desierto. Jesús se fue al desierto para poder estar plenamente consciente de su relación con el Padre. Fue guiado por el Espíritu por un camino que confirmaría el momento de comenzar Su ministerio público. Este ministerio conduciría a curaciones, enseñanzas, milagros, crucifixión y muerte. Por supuesto que tenía miedo de comenzar sus cuarenta días. Probablemente tuvo muchos momentos en los que quiso dar la vuelta o pensar que un viaje de cinco días, o incluso un viaje de cinco horas, era lo suficientemente bueno. Pero sabemos que Él siguió este viaje, yendo más allá de todo deseo y hambre, cada tentación y duda, cada encuentro peligroso, para buscar la unidad solo con el Padre. Su tiempo en el desierto, sus cuarenta días de oración, fueron un regalo del Padre para que Jesús se fortalezca para conquistar los caminos aún más difíciles que le aguardaban. Este período de tiempo, este tiempo de oración, fue una preparación para Su muerte y resurrección. Jesús abraza el don del tiempo sin huir de él y descubre que nunca estará solo.

A medida que damos nuestros pasos en el camino de la Cuaresma, también nosotros somos llamados a caminar solos con el Padre. Estaremos tentados a buscar a otras personas o incluso a no hacer ajustes en nuestro camino ordinario. Pero, si queremos cumplir con lo que el Padre quiere de nosotros, necesitamos pasar un tiempo de tranquilidad, tiempo de oración, en preparación para lo que aún nos espera. El impulso de apresurar el viaje, o renunciar, o dar la vuelta, o ni siquiera comenzar, será fuerte. Ofrezco algunas reglas fáciles de seguir desde el principio:

- No se permiten dispositivos electrónicos después de las 8 p.m.
- Solo una bebida alcohólica por semana.
- Cada día de Cuaresma, comuníquese con alguien que haya descuidado.
- Lea la Biblia durante 30 minutos todos los días.

Estas son solo algunas sugerencias sencillas que nos ayudarán a mantenernos en el camino. Hay muchos pasos más profundos que podemos tomar para usar este regalo de tiempo y ayudarnos a prepararnos para lo que nos espera. Si aceptamos la Cuaresma como lo hace Jesús, podemos estar seguros de que también nosotros tendremos ángeles que nos auxilien mientras buscamos la unión solo con nuestro Padre Celestial.

Lección 9:
Cristo ha resucitado,
Cristo vendrá de nuevo.

LECCION GENERAL
YO CREO
Aunque Cristo reina ahora en el cielo, también reina aquí en la tierra a través de la Iglesia, su cuerpo. Su reino está presente y aún está por venir. La Iglesia espera la segunda venida de Cristo con gran esperanza y anticipación. No sabemos la hora de su regreso, ni podemos saberlo.

VERSO DEL MES
MATEO 28:6
“Él no está aquí, porque ha sido resucitado tal como lo dijo.”

MUDARSE A LA CUARESMA
Durante unas seis semanas antes de Pascua, los católicos observan la temporada de Cuaresma. El primer día de Cuaresma varía, este año comienza el 17 de febrero con el Miércoles de Ceniza. La Cuaresma es una temporada de penitencia en la que los católicos practican la oración, el ayuno y la limosna como una forma de prepararse para entrar en el Misterio Pascual y la celebración de la Pascua renovando nuestros votos bautismales y aprendiendo a vivirlos más fielmente durante la temporada de Pascua.
EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS - THE UNLIKELY SUSPECTS

Have you ever taken a nature walk? Have you leisurely stroll through a forest or field, with no real destination in mind and your only objective being receptivity to and observation of all God’s creation?

Sometimes, Scripture readings can feel like a nature walk. All of salvation history plays out against the backdrop of the natural world, with all elements of God’s creation — plants and animals and the dust of the earth itself — turning in a supporting performance. How about Jesus in the hot and dusty desert, tempted, living “among the wild beasts”? Noah departed from his ark with the animals he rescued, observing God’s sign in the very clouds of the sky. Even God Himself, offering us salvation from original sin through the waters of baptism.

How often do we remember that God speaks to us through all of His creation, even in the unlikeliest suspects? Let’s go back to the nature walk. It sounds like a lovely way to pass an afternoon, amongst wildflowers and butterflies, but don’t forget the beating hot sun, mosquitoes, and threat of rain on the horizon. Remember, we’re not in heaven yet. Here on earth, God may be present in His creation, but that doesn’t mean it’s always easy to endure.

Lent is, essentially, a time to listen for the voice of God in places we may not expect: the mild irritations you experience when you’re craving the chocolate you gave up, or the dull pangs of hunger during the Ash Wednesday fast. It’s a golden opportunity to see the divine hand in all of creation, even those unlikely suspects.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

你是否曾經在大自然漫步？你是否曾經悠閒地漫步於森林或田野間？心中沒有真正的目的地，而你唯一要做的，就是接受並觀察上主所有的創造？

有時候閱讀聖經也像在大自然漫步。所有的救恩史都是在大自然的背景之下進行的，上主創造的所有要素— 植物動物和地球自身的塵土— 都發揮了相互的作用。耶穌在炎熱多塵的沙漠裡，有誘惑及野外的所有生活，又是如何過的呢？諾亞帶著他拯救出來的動物，離開了方舟，在烏雲的天空中觀察上主的記號，甚至上主自己，也藉著水的領洗賜給了我們原罪的救恩。

你是否曾經在大自然漫步？你是否曾經悠閒地漫步於森林或田野間？心中沒有真正的目的地，而你唯一要做的，就是接受並觀察上主所有的創造？再讓我們回到大自然中漫步，在野花叢中與蝴蝶一起，聽起來像是度過一個美好午後的好方法，但是不要忘記還有烈日，蚊子和遠方驟雨的威脅，請記住，我們還沒進入天堂，在地球上，上主可能仍存在於祂的創造物中，但這並不意味著總是很容易忍受著威脅。

四旬期，本質上，我們是在不期待的地方聆聽上主聲音的時候：當你放棄你所渴望的巧克力時，你會經驗到有些煩惱。或在聖灰星期三齋戒期中沉悶的飢餓。這是千載難逢的機會，即使是在那些最不可能的對象，也可以看見聖神的手創作的力量。— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
